

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 455

Shadow agent Huahua's nose was a little sore too. This little girl really knew how to stir up emotions. Her words made him feel very uncomfortable. These secret guards were all orphans without parents. Who would not miss their parents?!

After Xue Wuji returned to his residence, he felt sad for a while. Only then did he realize that not only did he not get any information from her, he was even led by the nose by the little girl! What a troublesome little girl!

However, what the little girl said really suited his feelings, and it was not that this little girl had no redeeming qualities. No wonder Di Beiming liked her.

The next day, Xue Wuji still looked for Yun Chujiu to get the information.

"Little Sister Jiu, I lost my composure yesterday. I'm sorry! I heard that you couldn't cultivate in the beginning. How did you manage to cultivate in the end?" Xue Wuji persevered and kept trying.

"I could cultivate after being struck by lightning. I have a Thunder Root Spirit!" 'Wuji knows that I have the Thunder Root Spirit anyway, so there's no harm in telling him,' she thought.

"Little Sister Jiu, is there anything special about this Thunder Root Spirit?"

"Yes! I can't cultivate without the thunder element! That's why my spiritual power has been stagnant!" Yun Chujiu sighed and said.

"Brother Wuji, I actually admire you a lot!" Yun Chujiu said with starry eyes.

Xue Wuji was stunned. What tricks was this stupid girl playing? "What do you admire me for?"

“Brother Wuji, as the young master of the Blood Demon Sect, your family is so rich, but you didn’t indulge yourself. Instead, you trained hard and worked hard. I heard from my Prince Charming that you’re also an amazing person in the Tianyuan continent! You are truly admirable!” Yun Chujiu said with incomparable sincerity.

Xue Wuji felt that every pore on his body was extremely comfortable. He wished that Yun Chujiu could say a few more words. “Little Sister Jiu, you really flatter me! I’m just alright!”

Shadow agent Huahua staggered. ‘Oh my God, our young master actually learned to be humble?! Isn’t this too shocking?!’

“Brother Wuji, you’re too humble! The Blood Demon Sect sounds pretty awesome, doesn’t it? As the young master of the Blood Demon Sect, you’re not satisfied with the current situation and want to further develop the sect. Why isn’t someone as ambitious as you admirable?! Brother Wuji, you don’t have to be humble!” Yun Chujiu’s eyes sparkled, her face was full of worship.

Xue Wuji felt as if his entire body was floating. ‘This feeling is really too f*cking good!! How come none of my subordinates are so good with words?! Each and every one of them is stupid! The smelly girl’s words are really pleasant to hear!’

“Brother Wuji, what I admire more is that you’re able to bend and stretch. In order to get information about Prince Charming from me, you’re actually able to make yourself a disciple of the Spirit Radiance Sect. You’re really the role model for the second generation of the rich!”

“No! No! I’m also...” Xue Wuji was halfway through his sentence when he realized that he had been exposed. He had been tricked by the smelly girl again!

Shadow agent Huahua had no strength to ridicule him! ‘Young Master, you should be more careful!! A few flattering words fooled you, and you’ve been directly tricked by the little girl. How are you going to get information from her in the future?!’

Xue Wuji was stunned for a moment, and then said as if nothing had happened, "Little Sister Jiu is indeed smart and clever. No wonder Di Beiming likes you. I'm also liking you more and more."

Yun Chujiu rolled her eyes. This black-headed chicken was really thick-skinned. Cough! It was almost as thick as hers!
