

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 475

The leaves of the strange grass in Yun Chujiu's Dantian were like human fingers. They made waving and hooking motions. The disciples who challenged the stage were all dumbfounded!

What was going on?!

They were originally fighting with the demonic beasts, but the demonic beasts seemed to have gone crazy. Some jumped into the river, some crashed into trees, and some even crashed into rocks!

What kind of stimulation did these demonic beasts receive? Did they not want to live anymore?! All of them wanted to commit suicide?!

These disciples had all suffered! When the demonic beasts realized that they could not get out no matter what they did, they began to vent their anger on the disciples of the trial!

The demonic beasts seemed to have been injected with stimulants. Their combat strength soared, and they began to crazily attack the disciples of the trial!

Thus, Master Xuanyuan and the others found that the disciples were bouncing out one after another, as if the tower was spewing out dumplings!

Yun Chujiu, who was inside Wuwei Tower, did not know about the 'tragedy' that she had caused. She was still muttering, "This is really strange. There's no movement at all. Could it be that this place is really isolated?"

Yun Chujiu suddenly jumped up and placed her hands on her waist as she began to curse, "F*ck! I've tolerated you for an entire day! If you don't let me out now, I'll start saying nasty things!"

“Let me tell you, I even made the tribulation thunder cry. If you’re not convinced, then let’s try it. I’ll give you an hour to think about it. When the time is up, and if you still don’t let me out, don’t blame me for scolding you!”

Time passed bit by bit. An hour passed. Yun Chujiu was about to scold it with her arms akimbo when a white light flashed in front of her eyes and the scene changed.

Yun Chujiu was in a valley. The grass was green and the spring water was flowing. It was as beautiful as a picture.

An emotionless voice suddenly sounded, “The first level of the Wuwei Tower trial has been opened. Trial-taker Yun Chujiu.”

Yun Chujiu pouted. “Why didn’t you just let me out earlier? Seriously! Strange grass, you can stop now! Although you may have hooked for nothing, you are very obedient and performed well. If I can get high-level herbs later, I will feed them to you!”

As soon as Yun Chujiu finished her sentence, two Tier Four Earth-shattering Bears rushed out from the distance and pounced toward Yun Chujiu with bared fangs and claws!

Yun Chujiu thought to herself that the others must have reached level four or Level five by now. She had to finish them quickly! Hence, she raised her hand and shot two purple lightning bolts at the two Earth-shattering Bears!

The two Earth-shattering Bears did not expect that there would be such a perverted fellow participating in the trial. They were directly struck by the two lightning bolts and ended up choking on their farts!

Yun Chujiu originally wanted to put away the two bear corpses, but she did not expect the two corpses to disappear into thin air!

Yun Chujiu felt that the scene before her eyes was familiar. Was this not similar to the second round of the entrance test of the Spirit Radiance Sect?! There must be an array formation here. If there was an array formation, then there must be an array core. If there was an array core, then there must be Spirit Stones. If she could find the array core, then would she not be able to make a small fortune? This Wuwei Tower had been there for so many years, so there might be high-grade Spirit Stones in the array core!

At that moment, she felt a tinge of regret. If she had known this would happen, she would have looked for old man Qu to learn about array formations. She was really confident. She decided to learn and do it on the spot. Although she had never learned about array formations before, she had basically read all the books in the library. Thus, she began to recall all the array formation books she read before. She did not expect to know how to set up an array formation, as long as she could find the array core.

While Yun Chujiu was learning array formations, there was an Earth-shattering Bear that jumped out casually. Before she could learn the array formations, she heard an emotionless voice suddenly ring out. "The first level of the Wuwei Tower trial has been passed. Trial-taker Yun Chujiu will be rewarded with a bottle of spirit gathering pills. One hundred points."
