

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 478

Yun Chujiu was dumbfounded. What was that? Negative 200 points?

She had just passed the first level and obtained 100 points. Now it was negative 100 points?

'F*ck!! Wouldn't the people outside, especially that old bastard Du Guyi, be laughing their heads off?!

Just as Yun Chujiu was feeling absolutely dumbfounded, a white light flashed and the scene before her eyes changed again!

This time, they were in a vast desert. The sun was shining on their heads, and the ground was filled with hot sand!

Before Yun Chujiu could react, a group of desert scorpions pounced on Yun Chujiu aggressively!

"Damn it! This is definitely Wuwei Tower's weapon spirit taking revenge on me! This is only the third level, do you have to send a group of demonic beasts to kill me?! Damn! There are more than a hundred of them!" Yun Chujiu cursed as she waved her lightning to strike at the scorpions in front of her.

"Rolling pin, turn into a chopping board. Let's kill them while flying in the air!" Yun Chujiu said fiercely.

After the rolling pin turned into a chopping board, it sadly realized that it could not fly. "Master, it's probably forbidden to fly here. I can't take off!"

"F*ck! This damn Wuwei Tower is determined to kill me! Fortunately, I have a lot of defensive spiritual weapons, but I can't bear to waste them like this! When I go back this time, I'll definitely refine some awesome poisons. By then, I'll be able to poison my enemies with just a handful of them!"

The rolling pin was about to cry. They were in such a conundrum and yet she wanted to talk about what they had and did not have. Thinking about the skills they had to deal with the issue at hand would be much more productive!

“Damn it! I’ll be exhausted by the time I’ve killed all these scorpions. I won’t be able to pass the next stage! I have to think of another way!” Yun Chujiu was trying to figure out a way as she hacked at them.

Just when Yun Chujiu was frowning, a proud voice said, “Master, leave these bugs to me! Watch how I deal with them!”

“Little Black? You’re awake?!” Yun Chujiu quickly released the little black bird from the Spirit Beast Pouch!

Not only was the little black bird bigger than before, but its feathers were also darker and brighter. The most peculiar thing was that there was a bulge on its head. It looked strange!

“I will burn you all to death! How dare you bully my master! Look at this fireball!” Little Black opened its mouth, and a fireball the size of a washbasin flew toward the group of scorpions!

For some reason, when these scorpions saw Little Black, they looked as if they were imprisoned by someone. They were actually stunned on the spot, and only when the fireball hit their bodies did they scatter and flee in panic!

Since it was forbidden to fly in there, Little Black flapped its wings and jumped on the ground a few times. “Damn it! If I could fly, I would’ve killed all of you!”

“Little Black! Well done! Why didn’t those scorpions dare to move when they saw you?” Yun Chujiu asked curiously.

“Hmph! Those bugs are instinctively afraid of me. In the past, I was too weak, so they were not afraid of me. Now that I’ve leveled up, they are naturally afraid of me!” Little Black widened its bean-like eyes, showing off!

“Little Black, what level are you at now? You really are my spiritual pet. I can’t tell from your appearance that you have real spiritual power.” Yun Chujiu asked with a smile.

“Level six, master. How is that? Am I very powerful? After a nap, I directly rose to the early stage of level six, which is equivalent to the fourth level of the human Spirit Cultivator realm!”

Yun Chujiu nodded. It seemed that the speed of spiritual pet’s cultivation was directly related to its master’s cultivation. Although she was now at the second level of Spirit Cultivator, her spiritual power was about the same as a fourth level of Spirit Cultivator, so Little Black directly rose to level six. It was truly a situation where when one benefits, so does everyone, and vice versa.

“By the way, Little Black, why is there a bump on your head? What did you bump into?” Yun Chujiu asked curiously.
