

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 482

"Little spider, are you trying to beg for mercy? If it is, just point once. If it isn't, point twice!" Yun Chujiu rolled her eyes and evil thoughts appeared again!

The gold-spotted poison spider used its antennae to point once!

Yun Chujiu continued with a smile, "You are not a formation beast, are you a real demon beast?"

The gold-spotted poison spider used its antennae to point once again!

"How about this, I can spare you, but you have to tell me the location of the formation core on this level." The higher she went, the harder it was to find the formation core. It would save her a lot of trouble if she had some guidance.

The gold-spotted poison spider had no choice but to agree for the sake of its little life. Yun Chujiu let Furry lead the gold-spotted poison spider to find the location of the formation core!

Qi Ling nearly fainted!

I've raised you for over a thousand years, and you're going to betray me just like that?!

The gold-spotted poison spider replied in a muffled voice, "It's your fault for not coming to save me! Too bad I don't know how to speak. Otherwise, I'll tell the little girl about the formation's core on the eighth and ninth levels. I'll infuriate you to death, you heartless old woman!"

Qi Ling rolled her eyes. The other party raised an ingrate, but it raised a white-eyed spider!

If Yun Chujiu knew what the gold-spotted poison spider was thinking, she would definitely trick this stupid spider into leading the way. Unfortunately, she did not understand the language of beasts. After this fellow stored the spiritual stones and array disks in his storage ring... a furious voice was heard saying, "The seventh level of the Wuwei tower trial has been passed. Trial-taker Yun Chujiu, the reward is canceled. The accumulated points are minus 6,400 points. The accumulated points are minus 12,500 points!"

The crowd outside the Wuwei tower was in an uproar!

"Oh my God, the legendary eighth level is within reach!"

"Oh my God! Am I Dreaming? Isn't it said that only Patriarch Linghua has entered the eighth level in the past 10,000 years?"

"Could it be that Qing Xuan continent is going to produce another peerless genius?"

"I'm so excited! I saw the eighth level of the Wuwei Tower light up in my lifetime!"

...

After everyone was excited for a while, they realized there was a big problem! Everyone was already ejected. Who exactly had entered the eighth level?

At this moment, someone shouted again, "Oh my God, Yun Chujiu's score has become minus 12,500 points!"

"Haha, anyway, the Linghua faction is already last. It doesn't matter how many negative points there are!"

“Wait! Isn’t Yun Chujiu the only person left in the Wuwei Tower? Could it be, heavens, that Yun Chujiu is the one who entered the eighth level?”

“How is that possible? She’s only at the fourth level of the Spirit Enhancement Realm! Besides, she’s always had negative points. When she reached the eighth level, she should have had more than 10,000 positive points!”

“If it’s Not Yun Chujiu, then who is it? There’s no one else! Yun Chujiu must be the one on the eighth level!”

“Then what’s wrong with the points?”

“This, maybe there’s something wrong with the stone wall. Yun Chujiu should have more than 10,000 points!”

“Forget it! There hasn’t been a problem with the stone wall for tens of thousands of years, and it’s already a problem with Yun Chujiu? !”

Su Yanran was originally full of confidence, but for some reason, she had a bad feeling in her heart! How similar was the situation in the Great Void Mystic Realm the last time?!

Could it be that the same thing was going to happen again? No, impossible! No matter which level she reached, the points were still the most important! Even if she reached the ninth level, the people of the Ling Hua sect would still hate her. It was because she had obtained a negative score that she was ranked last!

Du Guyi had the same thoughts as Su Yanran. Anyway, the final ranking did not depend on which level she reached. Who knew what kind of tricks that wretched girl Yun Chujiu had up her sleeves!
