

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 526

The assassins brought over some wooden cards of the same size. Yun Chujiu wrote and drew on them, and soon, she produced a deck of playing cards.

"There are many ways to play these cards. I'll quickly teach you the simplest one first! When you've learned it, I'll teach you Fight the Landlord. It's especially fun!" Yun Chujiu said, beaming with joy. She figured that An Feng must be following her from behind. He had suddenly appeared back in the Fire Cave. Although she did not ask him to, Di Beiming must have sent him to protect her in secret. She distracted the members of the League of Assassins so they would not find out that An Feng was tailing them.

Sigh, she was still too weak. If she could escape from death this time, she would definitely train hard and never read those dirty books again! Hmm, but it shouldn't be a problem to read them occasionally, right?!

The assassins quickly learned how to play cards and were all eager to give it a try. When they saw that Gold Face did not stop them, they asked Yun Chujiu to make a few more cards.

"You guys are quite bad at this! If you play with me, I will win until you don't even have any undergarments left!" Yun Chujiu pouted and said.

Those killers would not be convinced, so they chose three people to play with Yun Chujiu.

Yun Chujiu stretched out her hands at the golden-masked man and said, "Gold Face, how can I play without money? At least give me a few Spirit Stones as an information fee so that I can play with them."

The Man in the Golden Mask thought for a moment and handed over a few spiritual stones to Yun Chujiu. Yun Chujiu thanked him with a smile and started to play with his team of assassins.

When the Man in the Golden Mask saw the scene in front of him, the corners of his eyes could not help but twitch!

Assassins and hostages playing cards together? Why did this situation look so strange!!

However, these subordinates were tense all day long. It was rare for them to be so happy, so they could relax a little!

Even if the people of the Yun family returned to the Linghua sect to report for help, they would still need at least a day to conduct a rescue. Since they dared to accept this business deal, they were not afraid that the Linghua sect would cause trouble for them!

Yun Chujiu's card skills were pretty good. In a short while, she had won a pile of Spirit Stones, she smiled and said to Gold Face, "Gold Face your League of Assassins doesn't need to do this line of work at all. If you accept this business of protecting people and open a casino, not only will you earn more than killing people, but you can also let these big brothers live a normal life!"

"Not to mention, you guys can marry and have children, you only know how to kill people all day long. How much time have you lost potentially being able to enjoy life?! People live just to be happy! Look at me, I'm about to die, but I'm still so happy. So you guys really have to persuade your leader. If it doesn't work, you guys let me live for another day or so. I'll go and persuade him! Anyway, I'm also going to die. If he gets angry, he can just kill me!"

Yun Chujiu's words hit the heart of the assassins. Who the hell would want to live like this! Every day, it was just killing and killing. Every day, people around them would die. Other than killing, eating, and sleeping, there was nothing else to do. They were just tools for killing. They were not human at all!

However, these killers had all consumed the League of Assassin's poison. They had to take the antidote regularly every month. Therefore, even though they had lived this kind of life for a long time, they could not help it. They could only live this hopeless life day after day, year after year!

The atmosphere in the flying spirit tool suddenly became somber. Everyone fell into a strange silence...
