

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 53

The wind blade from the gray rabbit was very sharp. It managed to cut off a twig that was about the breadth of a finger.

Yun Chulu and Yun Chuba jumped out, and two of them started to fight with the gray rabbit.

Yun Chujiu found this incredibly interesting. Those from the First Level in Spirit Refinement Realm to the Third Level in Spirit Refinement Realm could not release their spiritual energy yet. The only thing better about them compared with normal humans was that they were more agile. Those at the Fourth Level in Spirit Refinement Realm could release their spiritual energy to launch attacks, and they could make a shield with their spiritual energy to protect themselves.

Yun Chulu was at the Third Level in Spirit Refinement Realm while Yun Chuba was at the Second Level in Spirit Refinement Realm. Neither could release their spiritual energy, but fortunately, the gray rabbit needed some time to gather its power before it could spit out its wind blade. So, both of them could still handle the rabbit with their nimble movements.

After half an hour, the gray rabbit became a dead rabbit. With a heroic air, Yun Chuba spoke to Young Jiu, "Young Jiu, did you see how capable I was? I'll take care of you in the future!"

Yun Chujiu put on an admiring look. "Sixth Brother, Eighth Brother, you're both awesome!"

“Hmph! You’re so ignorant! It’s just a first-tier Wind-Blade Rabbit, I can kill it alone. What’s so amazing about that?” Yun Chuqi sneered by the side.

Yun Chujiu rolled her eyes in her heart. ‘Is Yun Chuqi’s zodiac sign a hedgehog or something?’

Yun Chuba was naturally unwilling to accept what she said, so he started to argue with Yun Chuqi again.

Yun Chuyi’s expression darkened. “Chuqi, Chuba, if both of you keep causing a ruckus, go home!”

Yun Chuqi and Yun Chuba glared at each other. They stopped talking, and they looked rather ashamed of themselves.

Everyone continued to walk further into the forest. They met some monsters back to back, but those were just first-tier monsters.

Yun Chujiu never really realized just what kind of strange world she had come to in the past. But since she saw a rabbit spitting out a wind blade, a pheasant whose feathers could become arrows, and a squirrel that could spit fireballs, she felt like she had finally uncovered a corner of this world.

These first-tier monsters may have had their special abilities, but there was a gap between each time they could use their abilities. Therefore, although the disciples of the Yun family suffered from some superficial wounds, they could still handle the monsters. In a while, the guards had held quite a number of spoils in their hands.

Very soon, it was noon. The group efficiently prepared the prey and started to roast the meat.

Yun Chujiu's eyes sparkled. She kept her eyes fixed on the sizzling meat, and she could not look away.

"Such a big eater! You glutton!" Yun Chuqi glared fiercely at Yun Chujiu.

"Seventh Sister, are you desperate to get closer to me?" Yun Chujiu's gaze finally moved from the roasted meat to Yun Chuqi.

"Get closer to you? You're thinking too highly of yourself! Trash—"

"Stop! Since you don't want to get closer to me, then stop placing your attention on me. You just keep talking about me, you know? So I thought you really wanted to attract my attention!" Yun Chujiu schooled her face and cast a profound glance at Yun Chuqi.

Yun Chuqi subconsciously felt a little scared. She thought that Yun Chujiu's eyes were even sharper than those of the monsters, so she told Yun Chujiu that she was just running her mouth off, albeit in an abashed manner. Then, she went off to search for Yun Chushan.

Finally, the world around her became quiet, and the meat was also done.

Yun Chujiu was not afraid of being scalded. She grabbed the rabbit leg that Yun Chuyi passed to her and started to munch on it.

“Yum! Yummy! Delicious! It tastes so good!” Yun Chujiu was extremely happy. ‘This monster meat tastes much better than normal meat. It’s so fresh and tender, fat but not greasy, lean but not dry! It’s a true delicacy!’

While Yun Chu was eating happily, Yun Chuyi shouted, “Hide! A second-tier monster is coming over!”

Yun Chuwu dragged Yun Chujiu to the shrubs at the side to hide. Yun Chujiu was so angry that she glared in anger. ‘Why did this friggin’ monster have to come NOW?! DAMN IT!’
