

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 553

Elder Qi put in a lot of effort. All of the herbs he picked were high-grade spirit herbs. Even the ten earth-grade, high-grade herbs that Xue Wuji gave were brought over as well.

Yun Chujiu was very touched. 'Tsk tsk... Although I'm very uninteresting, I still have a good relationship with people, right?! Elder Qi is such a stingy person, but he actually plucked all these good herbs for me. It's really touching! Damnglass! Just you wait! You eat what's mine, sooner or later, I'll make you spit it out!

Elder Qi crushed the herbs and fed them to Yun Chujiu. As expected, this time she did not spit them out. She swallowed them happily and impatiently!

Elder Qi's worldview was refreshed! Only Yun Chujiu, this little demon, had such a strange thing growing in her Dantian!

As more and more herbs were fed, Yun Chujiu's face gradually became rosier, and her pulse became stronger. Di Beiming and Elder Qi were ecstatic! Great! Little Jiu could be saved!

"Young Master Di, since Little Jiu is getting better, let's stop feeding her herbs for the time being. I'll keep an eye on her. You should rest first. Don't let Little Jiu fall ill when she wakes up!" Elder Qi said to Di Beiming.

Di Beiming shook his head. "I'll just sit here and meditate. You should go back and rest."

The two of them were worried about Yun Chujiu, so they decided to stay.

However, they soon discovered a problem. Although Yun Chujiu was getting better, a day and a night had passed, but Yun Chujiu still had not woken up.

“What’s going on? Little Jiu’s body should have fully recovered by now, so why isn’t she awake yet?”
Elder Qi was puzzled.

Di Beiming also frowned. What on earth was going on?

Yun Chujiu pointed at her stomach and cursed, “F*ck! F*ck! Oh my God! F*ck! You damn foxtail! Are you planning to take over this body?!”

“Do you think that because you’ve taken over my body, my Prince Charming will feed you medicinal pills and herbs every day? Dream on! My Prince Charming is wise and mighty, he will soon see through your tricks! When I get you out, I will step on you with my feet! I will chop you with a large kitchen knife! I will beat you with a rolling pin! I will fry you with a frying pan! I don’t believe that I can’t kill you!”

Di Beiming, who was watching Yun Chujiu by the bed, noticed that Yun Chujiu was trembling and could not help but shout in surprise, “Elder Qi! Little Jiu moved! Little Jiu moved just now!”

Elder Qi also rushed forward and stared at Yun Chujiu with anticipation, hoping that she would awaken immediately.

Yun Chujiu saw that strange grass was afraid, so she continued to curse, “Strange Grass! You heartless, evil grass! If it weren’t for me, you would still be a seed! I would be equivalent to your mother! You actually want to kill your mother, you ungrateful grass! Even if you take over my body, you will not be able to survive in the grass world anymore! You will be notorious for thousands of years!”

Yun Chujiu, who was lying on the bed, trembled even more violently!

Yun Chujiu decided to continue her efforts. “Strange Grass, you won’t be satisfied so easily, right? Are you satisfied with these lousy medicinal herbs? If you kill me, you will never be able to eat those gold-patterned medicinal pills again!

“If I don’t die, I will become more and more powerful. In the future, forget about earth-grade, high-grade herbs, even heaven-grade herbs will be easy to obtain! I’ve already said it clearly enough. Whether you want to be a shameless, supercilious grass or a conscientious grass with integrity, you decide!”
