

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 62

After the people from the Drifting Cloud Sect finished harvesting the Wormwood Tree, they quickly retreated.

He hadn't run far when a wave of miserable cries of jays sounded out. Obviously, the Green Giant-Beaked Jay had realized it had been tricked after returning to its nest!

It was obvious that those with two legs could not outrun those with wings. After fifteen minutes, more than twenty Green Giant-Beaked Jays swooped down from the sky.

Yun Chujiu looked up and jumped into the bushes nearby.

Is this a crow? It's even bigger than a golden eagle! Not only is it bigger, it's also spitting out wind blades. This is practically a bomber!

Yun Chujiu was hiding in a very good place. In addition to the bushes, there was also a huge rock! Yun Chujiu was very conflicted. On one hand, she felt that it was better to kill these people with the Green Giant-Beaked Jays. On the other hand, she was afraid that the Su Family and the Drifting Cloud Sect would not rest until they were dead.

Yun Chujiu carefully looked outside. The people from the Drifting Cloud Sect used their killer moves one after another. Fireballs, wind blades, and water arrows all attacked the Green Giant-Beaked Jay.

The Drifting Cloud Sect quickly fell into a disadvantageous position. At this moment, Elder Su made his move!

There seemed to be a defensive spirit treasure on Elder Su's body. The wind blades were all blocked one foot away. She raised her hand and wind blades attacked the Green Giant-Beaked Jay.

Elder Su's wind blades were much larger than the ones spat out by the Green Giant-Beaked Jays. Moreover, each time, three wind blades attacked together, the power was tremendous.

Yun Chujiu secretly pondered. This Elder Su really had some skills. He should be a Martial Practitioner. She had to think of a foolproof plan.

After Elder Su attacked, the Drifting Cloud Sect gradually gained the upper hand. The Green Giant-Beaked Jays angrily left.

Everyone did not have time to rest and quickly continued to run outside. Yun Chujiu followed them obediently. She did not dare to stay in the Demon Beast Forest alone.

Everyone ran to a relatively open area. Elder Su felt that it was mostly safe, so he let everyone rest on the spot.

Elder Su counted the number of people. Although the Drifting Cloud Sect had suffered some superficial wounds, there were no major problems. He was very satisfied in his heart. If it weren't for the Bai Clan being the bait, the injuries on his side would have been far more severe. As a result, his attitude towards the Bai siblings had improved slightly.

At that moment, everyone felt the ground begin to shake violently, and they could hear the faint roars of beasts.

"Not good! There are large numbers of demon beasts rushing over! Everyone, run!" Elder Su's expression changed drastically. He pulled Su Yanran and ran out quickly.

The rest of the group ran forward with fear on their faces.

Yun Chujiu rolled her eyes. No matter how fast a person ran, could he be faster than a demon beast? And from the looks of it, the number of demon beasts must be huge!

Yun Chujiu picked the thickest tree and climbed up! To prevent herself from falling, she tied herself to the tree branch with her belt.

Yun Chujiu sat on a tree branch and thought of today's experience. She felt that she was really unlucky today!

Not only did he encounter the white trash man, but he had also provoked the Drifting Cloud Sect. He had just escaped from the claws of the Green Giant-Beaked Jay, and now he had encountered a large group of demon beasts. Why did these demon beasts run out to scare people instead of staying in their own territory?!

As Yun Chujiu was thinking, the ground began to shake even more violently, and a large number of demon beasts came roaring.

Yun Chujiu was so scared that she shrank her neck. Oh my god, what level is this demon beast? Some demon beasts are even larger than elephants, like small mountains.

They seemed to be avoiding something as they charged forward blindly. Some of the weaker ones were actually trampled to death by the other beasts.

Yun Chujiu couldn't help but rejoice that she didn't run with Elder Su and the others. With the speed of these demon beasts, they would catch up with them very quickly.

Just as Yun Chujiu was secretly rejoicing, a huge demon beast slammed its hoof on the tree where Yun Chujiu was hiding! At this time, Yun Chujiu deeply understood what it meant to be caught in her own trap! Because she was tightly tied to a tree branch by her own belt, she could not escape even if she wanted to!
