

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 623

Yun Chujiu sprinted along the road. A few of them were extremely anxious. Their master had fallen into a trance. That Idiot Gigolo didn't stop their master, yet if things were to go wrong, he would go mad!

Yun Chujiu sprinted aimlessly until her spiritual power was exhausted. She no longer controlled the chopping board and allowed it to float slowly in the air.

The things that she had experienced in the past two days made Yun Chujiu let out all the pent-up energy that she had accumulated for a long time. She liked to live a carefree life and hated the days when she was bound and threatened the most.

Therefore, in her previous life, after she had used all kinds of methods to become a top-level agent, she actually managed to escape and was prepared to live a carefree life. Who would have thought that she was struck by lightning and transmigrated?

Her happiest days in this world were at the beginning of her transmigration. Even though her spiritual power was at its lowest at the time, and even though the gigolo would threaten her life from time to time, she did not have to constantly worry that the Yun family would meet with misfortune. She did not have to carefully guess the gigolo's thoughts, did not have to be wary of the hidden schemes of her fellow sect members, and did not have to expend all her effort guessing who was the real mastermind.

Yun Chujiu hugged her head with both hands and started to cry silently.

The person who smiled the sweetest outside was usually the one who felt the most bitter inside. Under the cover of her funny appearance, she was afraid that the affection and love that she had painstakingly obtained would be lost just like that. They were like beautiful bubbles, a little external force would break them.

If her grandfather and uncle's family died because of her this time, how would she still have the courage to face fifth sister and the others? Would she still have a reason to live in this world?

This time, she was lucky to escape. What about the future? Yun Chujiu, you shouldn't have any family. You deserve to be lonely until you grow old. You shouldn't exist in this world!

Yun Chujiu's eyes were dead silent. Yes, what was the point of her living? She shouldn't have lived in this world to begin with. What was the point of her living?

Little Black Bird opened his pea-sized eyes wide and started to cry. "WA-WA, master, don't be like this. If you do this, I'll feel terrible."

It was as if Yun Chujiu did not hear what the little black bird was saying. She sat there in a daze as she looked into the distance with her lifeless eyes.

Little Black Bird quickly whispered to the chopping board, "You idiot, why are you flying forward? Why aren't you flying towards the Linghua sect?!"

Only then did the chopping board realize what it was doing. It turned around and flew towards the Linghua sect. Yun Chujiu did not react at all and allowed the chopping board to carry her back to the Linghua sect grounds.

On the way, he met Di Beiming who had been chasing after her all this while. When Di Beiming saw Yun Chujiu sitting on the chopping board with tears on her face, his heart felt like it was being cut by a knife. He stretched out his hand to hug Yun Chujiu. Yun Chujiu did not cry or make a scene and allowed Di Beiming to hug her in his arms.

"Little Jiu, what's wrong with you? Are you angry because I didn't celebrate your birthday with you? I didn't mean to break the appointment."

"That morning, I wanted to come and look for you, but my mother suddenly fell ill, so I could only stay by her side."

“At night, I found out that she was pretending to be ill. She did this so that I could attend her party. If I wanted to leave, my mother would be deeply upset, so I could only stay.”

“The next day, my mother might have caught a cold the night before yesterday, so she relapsed. When her condition improved, I immediately came to look for you.”

Little Black Bird secretly thought, damn! Damn old witch! You really deserve being called a demon!
