

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 636

The flying spirit tool landed outside the courtyard. After the cabin door was opened, eight beautiful young women walked out. They unfurled a snow-white carpet from the cabin door all the way to Yun Chujiu.

Yun Chujiu craned her neck and looked at them. She cursed in her heart. 'Where did this pretentious person come from?! You really know how to fake it. People usually walk on the red carpet, but you're walking on a white carpet to differentiate yourself from others?!'

After the carpet was laid, the eight women bowed and said, "Please welcome the Palace Mistress!"

Yun Chujiu was stunned. Palace Mistress? Where did this palace mistress come from?

A middle-aged woman in gorgeous clothing walked out from the flying spirit tool. To be precise, she was helped out by someone. Her hand was placed on the arm of a middle-aged servant, and the middle-aged servant bowed slightly and helped the middle-aged woman get off the flying spirit tool.

When Yun Chujiu saw the middle-aged woman's appearance, she felt as though ten thousand divine beasts were whizzing past her heart!

'Damn it!

'Isn't this the gigolo's mother?!

'Oh my God, my future mother-in-law is here!

Oh my God, oh my God! Who can advise her how an ugly daughter-in-law should greet her mother-in-law for the first time?

Moreover, why does this mother-in-law look like she was looking for trouble?!

The middle-aged woman first glanced at Yun Chujiu's courtyard with disdain, then looked at Yun Chujiu with disdain, and finally, her gaze fell on the book in Di Beiming's hand!

When Di Beiming saw that the situation was bad and wanted to put it away, it was already too late!

The middle-aged woman leaped up and jumped in front of Di Beiming, snatching the book away!

Yun Chujiu was shocked. Damn, this mother-in-law's spiritual power was not low. If they were to fight, she would not be able to beat her! Little Black heard Yun Chujiu mumbling to herself and almost cried because of her stupidity! 'You dare to hit your mother-in-law?? Do you even still want to be with the gigolo?!'

The middle-aged woman was so angry that she was shaking. She threw the book on the ground. "Beiming, you... You're actually reading such a vulgar thing? You... You've angered me to no end!"

Di Beiming frowned and said, "Mother, why are you here? Weren't you feeling unwell?"

Di Beiming looked at the middle-aged servant beside the middle-aged woman coldly and said, "Manager Luo, I always thought that you were responsible and always did your duty. Are you going to let my mother just have her way? Help my mother back to the Hall of Longevity immediately! Otherwise, the palace halls will punish her!"

The middle-aged servant was frightened by Di Beiming's cold gaze and trembled. "M-Madam, you..."

“Very well, Di Beiming! Have you grown wings?! Are you scolding her or me? What’s wrong with me coming here? Get lost. I’m here to look for her!” The middle-aged woman pointed at Yun Chujiu who was pretending to not exist on the side.

Di Beiming saw that the situation had come to this, so he could only say, “Little Jiu, this is my mother. Mother, this is Little Jiu.”

Yun Chujiu could not pretend to be stupid anymore. She could only smile sweetly. “Hello, auntie. You are really beautiful. If Brother Beiming had not mentioned it, I would’ve thought that you were his sister!”

Di Beiming felt his heart flutter when Yun Chujiu called him Brother Beiming. He suddenly felt that it was not a bad thing for his worried mother to come over. It was worth it to hear her call him that!

The middle-aged woman snorted coldly. “Auntie? I’m sorry, we’re not that close. Call me Palace Mistress!”

Yun Chujiu was extremely angry after being snubbed. However, she was an elder, so she could only smile and say, “Palace Mistress, please sit down and have a cup of tea!”

The palace mistress sneered and said, “You little girl, you are really scheming. Do you really want to serve your mother-in-law tea like that? Dream on! Don’t even think about entering our Di family!”
