

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 65

"Thank you, Elder Sun! I will not let you down!" Yun Chujiu's face was red and her eyes were filled with tears. Anyone who saw her would be excited.

The fat old man, who was also Elder Sun, rubbed his head and said rather embarrassedly, "Little girl, what's the big deal? If it weren't for the rules, I would have brought you back to the Spirit Radiance Sect."

Yun Chujiu sincerely said, "Elder Sun, I understand. As the saying goes, if there are no rules, nothing can be done. The Linghua Sect is such a big sect, there must be strict rules. I am already very grateful to have the chance to participate in the assessment!"

Everyone nodded to themselves. Not only was this little girl tough, but she was also very reasonable. Not bad!

"Little girl, we still have things to do later. Follow us first. Once we're done, we'll send you back home!" Elder Sun said kindly.

Yun Chujiu nodded and sat down obediently in a corner.

The interior of the air-transportation spiritual tool was rather spacious. Apart from the Mountain Master, Elder Sun, and three other elders, they were currently looking out of the window.

These people began to talk, obviously not avoiding Yun Chujiu. A little girl who could not cultivate was no threat at all.

"Looks like our speculation is correct. The reason why these demon beasts are acting so abnormally is definitely because the Nine-Colored Immortal Vermilion Bird is about to break out of its shell."

“That’s right. These Demonic Beasts must have felt fear, which is why they ran around madly.”

“Only an immortal beast like the Nine-Colored Immortal Vermilion Bird has such power.”

“Mountain Master, many other factions have arrived. The people from the other four peaks and the three great sects have also arrived.”

“The Nine-Colored Immortal Vermilion Bird is an immortal beast. If it weren’t for the fact that only when it was about to break out of its shell would there be a hint of divination, those guys would have already made their move.”

...

Yun Chujiu was confused, but she was certain that a treasure was about to appear!

There must be a treasure. Yun Chujiu’s little heart kept thumping. Nine-Colored Immortal Vermilion Bird? It sounds awesome. If only I could get it!

However, this guy still had some self-awareness. With so many Almightyies, it would be difficult for him to even look at them, let alone obtain them.

After about an hour, the air-transportation spiritual tool began to descend. Elder Sun grabbed Yun Chujiu’s collar and jumped off the air-transportation spiritual tool.

Yun Chujiu was scared out of her wits!

Oh my god, this was at least a hundred meters from the ground, right? If he jumped down, he would definitely become a meat patty.

Elder Sun looked at Yun Chujiu's pale face and couldn't help but laugh. "Little girl, don't worry, we are on the flying sword now."

Yun Chujiu then realized that there was a flying sword under Elder Sun's feet. The two of them were standing on the flying sword.

Yun Chujiu laughed dryly and started to look around curiously.

This was obviously the deepest part of the Demonic Beasts Forest. The surroundings were silent. The Demonic Beasts that were originally here had all fled.

"Elder Sun, why is it so hot here?" Yun Chujiu found that it was getting hotter the deeper she went.

"The Nine-Colored Immortal Vermilion Bird is a fire-attribute immortal beast. When it breaks out of its shell, it produces a lot of heat." Elder Sun was not vigilant against Yun Chujiu and told her the truth.

"The Nine-Colored Immortal Vermilion Bird must be very beautiful, right?" Yun Chujiu asked curiously.

"Haha, what a little girl! The Nine-Colored Immortal Vermilion Bird is naturally very beautiful, but what everyone cares about is not its appearance, but its battle prowess. That's an immortal beast! When we get there, I'll place you on a tree branch. Stay there obediently. There's going to be a fierce battle later."

"Yes! Elder Sun, don't worry! I cherish my life!" Yun Chujiu obediently agreed.
