

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 657

Seeing that they had left, Yun Chujiu quickly ran to the people lying on the ground. After checking their breathing, she finally heaved a sigh of relief. Although they were injured, their lives were not in danger for the time being.

Yun Chujiu quickly took out heaven-grade blood coagulation pills and fed it to them. Then, she asked An Feng, "What should we do? If we go out, we will die. If we stay here, we will also die!"

An Feng frowned, he said doubtfully, "Miss Jiu, logically speaking, before the Beast Tide breaks out, why would the demonic beasts suddenly start rampaging? Why don't we get on the backs of the Mighty Elephants to survey the situation first? Even if the demonic beasts stampede, the Mighty Elephant's huge body will not suffer too much."

Yun Chujiu nodded and said with admiration, "An Feng, your idea is pretty good! We will do as you say!"

Yun Chujiu took out the blood coagulation pills and fed them to a few Mighty Elephants. Then, she said to them, "This time, it's all thanks to you. Don't worry, I, Yun Chujiu, am not an ungrateful person. I will definitely repay you properly in the future."

The eldest elephant called out a few times in a low voice as a response to Yun Chujiu.

Yun Chujiu called everyone to get on the back of the Mighty Elephants. Then, she was on full alert as she waited for the Demonic Beasts Stampede to arrive.

However, after a long time, the demonic beasts did not appear. Moreover, the roars of the demonic beasts and the shaking of the ground gradually disappeared.

Everyone was puzzled. What was going on?

Yun Chujiu suddenly had a thought. After she sent her spiritual sense into her Dantian, as expected, the Strange Grass was proudly waving four leaves to claim credit!

“Strange Grass, well done! I didn’t expect that you were getting more and more powerful. Seems like now you can summon high-level beasts. Unfortunately, it seems like you can’t make them listen to you yet. Otherwise, it would be awesome!” Yun Chujiu praised the Strange Grass, although she knew that the Strange Grass was a “Vessel” to protect her, she still smoothed the Strange Grass’s fur.

The leaves of the Strange Grass trembled a few times. Although Yun Chujiu did not quite understand, she felt that the Strange Grass was not convinced, so she asked, “Could it be that you can make them listen to you?”

The leaves of the Strange Grass nodded and shook again. Yun Chujiu guessed, “Do you mean that you can’t do it now, but it’s possible in the future?”

The leaves of the Strange Grass trembled proudly. Yun Chujiu’s heart was both happy and worried. She was happy that the Strange Grass’s ability could be of greater help to her in the future yet worried that the Strange Grass would become more powerful to the point she would not be able to get rid of it.

However, no matter what, the Strange Grass was indeed of great help this time. Otherwise, she would have already been killed.

“An Feng, send a message to the Yun Mansion’s secret guards and ask them to come over to support us. We will hide in this demonic beast forest for the time being. Those black-clothed people should not dare come in for the time being,” Yun Chujiu said to An Feng.

“Miss Jiu, I already sent a message to them when I found these people. We only need to hold on for another four hours, and they will get here,” An Feng said.

Yun Chujiu nodded. "Then we will continue to walk into the Demonic Beast Forest. As long as we don't encounter a large group of high-level demonic beasts, we should be able to deal with them. We'll leave when the reinforcements arrive."

Yun Chujiu let the Mighty Elephants walk into the Demonic Beast Forest. She was prepared to wait for the Yun residence's secret guards to arrive before leaving.

Another two hours passed. As expected, those black-clothed men did not dare to rashly enter again. Yun Chujiu's heart relaxed quite a bit. As long as she persisted for another two hours, help would arrive!

Right at that moment, a sudden change occurred. The Demonic Beast Forest once again emitted an earth-shaking roar!
