

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 670

Another round of dense lightning struck down!

Yun Chujiu's veins and tendons had all exploded. Yun Chujiu's blood was all over the ground, but she still struggled to move forward.

'Gigolo, you've protected me while I'm alive. Just wait for me, I will protect you on the road to Hell.

Yun Chujiu moved forward inch by inch. Finally, her hand grabbed Di Beiming's hand. Blood and tears flowed down from the corners of her eyes. Di Beiming's originally long and strong hand had now become old and weak. The hand that had brought her so much warmth had become extremely cold.

The last thought in Yun Chujiu's heart shattered her. If the gigolo was really dead, then what was the point of her living?!

Yun Chujiu raised her head with great effort and roared, "Heavens! Heaven and earth are heartless and treat all things as dogs. Yet, you use your emotions to rule the world. Since you are so unfair, in the next life, I will definitely destroy you!"

In response to Yun Chujiu, there were bolts of lightning, one of which struck Di Beiming's body. His silver hair was instantly turned into charcoal, and even his clothes were turned into ashes.

Yun Chujiu used the last of her strength to protect Di Beiming under her body. The blood in her eyes fell on Di Beiming's face, "Gigolo, I'm coming to accompany you now."

After saying that, Yun Chujiu lay on Di Beiming's body. The last bit of hope was gone. She no longer had the will to live. She closed her eyes and waited for death to come.

The strange grass in Yun Chujiu's Dantian was struggling to move its leaves. The great Void Mirror looked at it coldly and hit it hard.

It was rare that the strange grass did not fight back. Instead, it pained and injected the life force in its body into Yun Chujiu's body. Yun Chujiu's ruptured meridians started to heal quickly...

Yun Chujiu soon realized that her meridians were healing rapidly. Then, they were ruptured, healed, and ruptured again...

At first, she thought that she was hallucinating. After a few rounds, she could not help but laugh at herself. Even her death had to be a painful one?

The pain of having her meridians ruptured was not something that an ordinary person could bear. Yun Chujiu had a thought in her heart. She thought that Di Beiming was not dead yet, so she forced herself to stay awake. Then, the thought dissipated, and she fainted very quickly.

The heavenly lightning continued to strike down. Yun Chujiu's red clothes were finally turned into ashes. The blood that kept seeping out of her body dyed Di Beiming into a bloody man.

Yun Chujiu's blood kept dripping on Di Beiming's body. Suddenly, an ancient and complicated seal burst out from Di Beiming's body!

The seal suddenly emitted a dazzling golden light. Not only did it block all the thunder tribulation, but a golden light pillar also shot straight into the sky!

Most of the thick and heavy dark clouds were blasted into dust. A few of the surviving dark clouds also escaped.

Under the golden light, Di Beiming's old face quickly changed back to his original appearance. Only then did the seal return to Di Beiming's body.

The strange grass and the great Void Mirror in Yun Chujiu's Dantian looked at each other while trembling. Strange Grass' gut were green with regret. 'From now on, I must make grass again. Sob sob, it was simply courting death in the past!'

The entire Demon Beast Forest gradually returned to peace. An Feng hurriedly brought people to the place where they had left. However, strangely, he found that other than the scorched earth, there was no sign of His Venerable Self and Miss Jiu. Where did the two of them go?
