

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 684

Yun Chujiu noticed the commotion amongst the three of them. She pretended not to see it and let them show off. I'll find a chance to teach you a lesson!

The three of them were not interested in low-level demon beasts. They urged Yun Chujiu to leave as soon as possible so that they could meet high-level demon beasts to show off their skills.

However, the Chimeric Plains was too big. It was not until noon the next day that Yun Chujiu and the others met a group of fifth-level Fire-Breathing Ash Wolves.

There were a total of fifteen Fire-Breathing Ash Wolves. They surrounded Yun Chujiu and the others aggressively, their eyes filled with greed.

The Flaming Three-Tailed Fox King looked at the Fire-Breathing Ash Wolves with disdain. "Master, they are no match for me. I can deal with five of them by myself! I am much stronger than those two!"

Yun Chujiu smiled evilly. "Didn't you guys want to practice before? I leave this to you three. An Feng and I will not fight. We will cheer for you from inside the spiritual energy shield. You guys can count on yourselves!"

After saying that, Yun Chujiu took out a protective disk. After opening it, she took out a spirit fruit and ate it leisurely while she watched the show.

"What?! Master! That's not like you! I can only deal with five of them. The two of them together can't even defeat one of those Fire-Breathing Ash Wolves. Aren't you sending us to our deaths?" The Flaming Three-Tailed Fox King anxiously cried out.

Little Black Bird looked at the Fox King with disdain. After flying up, it opened its mouth and threw a huge fireball at a Fire-Breathing Ash Wolf.

Although the Fire-Breathing Ash Wolf managed to dodge it, it was frightened by the lightning power contained in the fireball.

The Flaming Three-Tailed Fox King's black stone-like eyes went a little dull. How could this ugly fire-breathing crow spit out such a huge fireball? And it contained the power of lightning? How was this possible?

Seeing that Little Black Bird was so difficult to deal with, those Fire-Breathing Ash Wolves turned their attention to the Flaming Three-Tailed Fox King.

Since the Fire-Breathing Crow did not have much meat, they might as well eat the Flaming Three-Tailed Fox King in front of them. Thus, they surrounded the Fox King and trapped him.

The Little Black Bird flew in the air and shouted proudly, "Hey, Smelly Fox, do you need my help?"

The Flaming Three-Tailed Fox King snorted coldly, "I can handle it myself, there's no need for your pity."

Little Black Bird snorted and landed on a nearby tree, "Since that's the case, I'll stay here and watch the show. Let's see how you fight a pack of wolves. If you can't hold on any longer, let me know. I'm very magnanimous, I'll definitely help you."

The Flaming Three-Tailed Fox King wished that Little Black Bird would immediately come over to help. Unfortunately, since he had already turned him down, he could only force himself to say, "It's a small matter, watch how I'll deal with them."

Little Black Rat had already dug a hole and hid. This kind of fighting and killing was not suitable for me. I'll just give them moral support!

“Miss Jiu, aren’t you going to help them?” An Feng thought to himself. What kind of master raised what kind of spirit beast. However, it seemed that among the three of them, the most shrewd fox was the dumbest.

Yun Chujiu said to An Feng while chewing on the fruit, “Let’s wait and see. These Three Silly Munchkins of mine look stupid, but in fact, they all have their own ideas. They actually have the mind to bicker in front of a great enemy. It’s not a bad idea to teach them a lesson.”
