

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 695

"Little Red, it's all up to you!" Yun Chujiu saw a Glacial Snow Rabbit appear in front of her and immediately released Flaming Three Tailed Fox King.

The Flaming Three Tailed Fox King was very pleased with himself. It was forbidden to fly in here. Little Black Bird, that idiot, was useless. It was up to the King of Foxes now!

The Flaming Three Tailed Fox King's fiery red fur was extremely eye-catching on the ice field. The Glacial Snow Rabbit immediately noticed it and was so scared that it wanted to run away.

The Flaming Three Tailed Fox King pounced over with a swoosh. It was just a weak rabbit, and this king caught it with no effort.

It did not expect that the Glacial Snow Rabbit would shoot out several ice arrows from its mouth. The Flaming Three Tailed Fox King hurriedly dodged. The demon beasts here were indeed strange. They could actually shoot out so many ice arrows. Fortunately, the Fox King's reaction was fast enough, otherwise, he would have definitely been injured.

The Flaming Three Tailed Fox King cried out twice, and the Glacial Snow Rabbit's eyes began to lose focus. Although it was much stronger than the Wind-Edge rabbit in the Demon Beast Forest, it was still a lot weaker than the Flaming Three Tailed Fox King. How could it withstand its seductive voice?

The Flaming Three Tailed Fox King saw that the Glacial Snow Rabbit was beginning to lose its energy, so it jumped forward and bit its throat. After making sure the rabbit was dead, it happily brought it back to Yun Chujiu.

Yun Chujiu and An Feng were also shocked. They did not expect that the lowest level Glacial Snow Rabbit was almost the same as the other level 3 demon beasts. The Chimeric Icefield was indeed dangerous.

However, Yun Chujiu immediately focused her attention on the Glacial Snow Rabbit. This rabbit was really fat. It was probably because it was too cold here, so these demon beasts had to have enough fat on them to protect against the weather.

“Little Red, go and catch a few more. We’ll roast some bunnies later!” Yun Chujiu said as she drooled.

The Flaming Three Tailed Fox King had long been entranced by human delicacies. Roast meat was much more delicious than raw meat. Therefore, to be able to eat the roast meat, the Fox King worked hard to hunt for more, and within an hour, they had caught three more Glacial Snow Rabbits.

An Feng was asked by Yun Chujiu to clean up the four Glacial Snow Rabbits, and then she started to roast the rabbit meat by the bonfire. The rabbit meat was indeed very fatty. She roasted them until the fat sizzled, and the fragrance wafted through the air.

The Three Silly Munchkins drooled. In the past, Little Black Rat only ate ores. However, after following Yun Chujiu for a long time, he would occasionally start to eat other kinds of food.

The rabbit had just been roasted. Just as Yun Chujiu was about to feast on it, An Feng said, “Young master, there are people coming. It seems like there are quite a number of them.”

Yun Chujiu’s eyes flashed, “Let’s eat first while we wait and see.”

An Feng nodded. The two of them and the Three Silly Munchkins began to feast on the roasted meat happily.

Yun Chujiu was eating happily. She decided there and then in her heart that she had to capture more of the demonic beasts here so that she could enjoy eating their meat more often in the future. It was really delicious.

“Kid! Your roasted meat smells very good! Give us two of them as a sample!” A very arrogant voice said.

Yun Chujiu cursed in her heart. Were the people of the Chimeric Plains all so shameless? A few days ago, there were people who wanted to capture her spirit beast, and now there were people who wanted to eat for free. She had run into this situation too many times!

Yun Chujiu turned around and saw about twenty people standing in front of her. She couldn't see through their cultivation level of eight of them, so they should all be above the first level of the Spirit Emperor Realm. The remaining ten or so people were all above the seventh level of the spirit cultivator realm.

Yun Chujiu glanced at the Goshawk symbol embroidered on the clothes of a few of them and cursed in her heart. No wonder they were so shameless. So they were from that sect of flies.
