

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 716

Yun Chujiu smiled and walked to the cave. She looked inside and saw a stone staircase leading down.

Yun Chujiu took out the Illuminating Pearl to illuminate the cave and climbed down the stone staircase. An Feng followed her down as well.

Liu Qian saw the Illuminating Pearl that Yun Chujiu was holding and his heart skipped a beat. It seemed that this Stone Spirit's family was indeed very rich. 'Could it be that that person was trying to cheat him of his money? Even if he was trying to cheat him of his money, he wouldn't have given him a real map. Couldn't he just randomly make up a fake one?'

At this moment, Liu Qian's thoughts had already been deeply misled by Yun Chujiu. He had seriously gone astray.

When Yun Chujiu reached the bottom of the stone stairs, she realized that there were green stone slabs under her feet. On both sides of the stone walls and the green stone slabs under her feet, were drawings of waves.

Yun Chujiu was a little dumbfounded. They were in an ice field, why were there drawings of waves here? Could it be that this place was not an ice field but a sea?

Liu Qian and the people from the Goshawk Sect also climbed down. At the moment when everyone reached the bottom, there was a loud rumble above their heads. The mountain peak entrance had been sealed again.

Everyone could not help but cry out in surprise. It was over. The entrance was sealed. How would they get out? They should have listened to the Stone Spirit and left a few people outside.

Liu Qian also regretted his rash decision earlier. However, now that things had come to this, he could only continue to move forward and look for what that person wanted him to find.

After walking through a narrow and long tunnel, a stone door appeared in front of everyone. The stone door was still engraved with the pattern of waves and was emitting a faint blue light. It gave people the illusion that they were at the bottom of the sea.

Yun Chujiu stopped her footsteps and quietly became more vigilant. There might be a formation here, so it was better to be careful.

Seeing that Yun Chujiu stopped, Zhang Biao cursed unhappily, "Go ahead, why are you standing there?"

Yun Chujiu said disdainfully, "Can't you see that the stone door is closed? Naturally, I'm thinking of how to open it."

Zhang Biao curled his lips. "What a piece of trash. Just push it open! Get lost! Watch Master Zhang open the door!"

Zhang Biao said as he walked in front of the large stone door. He raised his foot and kicked the stone door!

Yun Chujiu thought to herself, this is really a fool who wants an early grave. She and An Feng suddenly retreated and activated the spirit energy shield to protect their bodies.

Liu Qian and a few elders also quickly activated the spirit energy shield when they saw the situation develop. A few Goshawk Sect disciples curled their lips disdainfully. They thought to themselves, 'These people are too timid. It's just a stone door. What kind of powerful mechanism could there possibly be here?'

Moments later, hundreds of Blue Water Arrows shot out from the stone door!

Zhang Biao was instantly turned into swiss cheese, and two of the Goshawk Sect disciples who did not dodge in time were also shot to death.

Although some Goshawk Sect disciples escaped the disaster, they were also injured by the water arrows. The most terrifying thing was that the water arrows were highly toxic. The injured disciples screamed a few times as they were all poisoned to death.

Everyone had horrified expressions on their faces. They did not expect to lose five people before they had even found anything. This place was truly extremely dangerous.

Just as everyone felt bewildered, the stone door opened on its own.

A faint blue light shone out from the inside. It gave off a feeling of mystery mixed with awe. Although it made people feel terrified, a desire to find the truth was also piqued in them.

The people of the Goshawk Sect who were at the level of the spiritual emperor could still control themselves. However, those disciples who were at the level of a spirit cultivator could not hold back and were eager to walk in.
