

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 735

Every time Di Beiming mentioned the merman, he always said it as if it was an object. He wanted Yun Chujiu to understand that it was a demonic beast and not a human!

Unfortunately, Yun Chujiu did not pay attention to this. When she saw Di Beiming questioning her words, she pouted and said, "Prince Charming, don't you believe me? Then I'll draw it for you!"

Yun Chujiu had almost finished eating, so she took out the drawing paper and quickly started drawing. Not long after, she drew a portrait of a merman. She captured it in both form and spirit, especially the dark and pure look in his eyes, which made people involuntarily feel pity for him.

"Prince Charming, do you think Brother Merman is good-looking? Most importantly, Brother Merman's beauty is the kind of pure beauty that doesn't touch the secular world. It's the kind of beauty that people can't bear to blaspheme." Yun Chujiu pointed at the portrait of the merman on the table and said.

Di Beiming looked at the portrait on the table, and his heart felt a little stifled. Although he was slightly less good-looking than him, he was indeed not bad-looking. Damn it, he was not even wearing clothes on his upper body. He was simply shameless!

When he heard Yun Chujiu's praise for the merman, he felt even more frustrated. His eyebrows were knitted together. Pure beauty?! HMPH! He was simply shameless and a pervert who did not wear any clothes.

An Feng, who was beside him, took a few steps back without batting an eyelid. 'Miss Jiu, what did you mean by even the wisest can have a momentary lapse in judgment? You! You are! You are acting like a demon right now! This time, you can't blame me. It's all your own doing!'

Yun Chujiu's IQ would automatically go offline the moment she appeared in front of Di Beiming. She did not notice Di Beiming's unsightly expression and continued.

“What a pity! If the mermaid women still existed, they would definitely be astonishingly beautiful! However, I’ve already asked Brother Merman. They can reproduce just like human women. When the mermaids turn into human form, nothing will be delayed...”

Crack!

The stone table shattered into powder!

“Black Thing! Say that again! You, you actually talked about reproduction with him?” Di Beiming shouted angrily with a livid face.

Yun Chujiu was dumbfounded. Looking at the furious Di Beiming, her intelligence finally came back online. She wanted to slap herself. She stammered, “Prince Charming, don’t misunderstand! I’m just afraid that the mermaids will be extinct! So, I just... I just asked.”

Di Beiming looked at her deeply. “You really care about him! You even care about how they reproduce! Black Thing, what else are you hiding from me? HMM?”

“Nothing! Really nothing! I just asked how the mermaids reproduce. I said I would help him introduce a girl, nothing else!”

“Besides, the main reason I asked him that question was because I was more curious! “Think about it. How are two fishtails going to hehehe...” Yun Chujiu said as she started to giggle.

Di Beiming was so angry. “You’re just a girl. Why are you so concerned about how the mermaids mate? You’re really, really infuriating me!”

Yun Chujiu laughed recklessly as she said, “Prince Charming, what do you think they would do if one of them turns into a fish while doing it?! Hahaha...”

An Feng and An Yin could not bear to look at her anymore. 'Miss Jiu, our Lord's hair is almost standing on end. You should look after yourself!'
