

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 769

Yun Chujiu deliberately put some distance between her and the others before placing her hands on her waist and shouting at the enchantment above, "Hey! Isn't that lightning too weak? Why are you fooling around?! Can you get a few stronger bolts to strike me?"

"Aiyo, you haven't eaten for tens of thousands of years, have you? Why are your lightning bolts so weak? It's a disgrace to the lightning and thunder users worldwide!"

"You guys have probably stayed in this sword tomb for too long until your ability to strike people has deteriorated. Compared to the lightning outside, it's like ant bites! Those lightning bolts are much stronger than yours."

"Oh right, the lightning outside is usually fired off by Wu Yun. I don't see Wu Yun here. Could it be that you guys aren't really from heaven but from the wilds?"

The corner of everyone's eyes twitched. Damn it, we have learned a lot. This little girl's scolding was out of this world! Although she did not use any swear words, her scolding was really fierce!

Additionally, could the wild heavenly lightning even understand her? Would it really turn around and focus on her alone? This was not possible, right?

Just as everyone was suspicious, those heavenly lightning bolts actually flew towards Yun Chujiu!

These heavenly lightning bolts were not the usual lightning produced by Wu Yun but derived from the ancient great formation. After tens of thousands of years, the derived heavenly lightning had already gained sentience. After they heard Yun Chujiu scold them, they could not tolerate it anymore!

Where did this little girl come from? She dared to provoke them like this. She had a death wish!

Strike her! Strike her! Strike her to death!

In the eyes of the wild heavenly lightning, killing this little girl was as easy as flipping a coin. Since she was asking for it, then let her have it!

Several heavenly lightning bolts flew towards Yun Chujiu!

Some people couldn't bear it and closed their eyes. It was over! This lively little girl was about to be turned into ash!

Even some people from the Heavenly Gates Sect couldn't bear it. Although this Yun Chujiu had repeatedly tricked their Heavenly Gates Sect, they didn't expect her to actually step forward in a time of crisis! She was much stronger than Su Yanran! Eh? Where was Su Yanran?

Only then did the people from the heavenly gate sect realize that Su Yanran had disappeared. Could it be that she fell into a crack and fell to her death? Or was she struck to death by the wild heavenly lightning?

At that time, several bolts of lightning had just struck Yun Chujiu!

Everyone heard Yun Chujiu's clear voice shouting, "Hey! Can't you guys do better than that? You're too weak! What a bunch of weaklings."

Everyone opened their eyes and saw that not only was Yun Chujiu completely fine, but she seemed to be even more lively than before! There was also a handkerchief tied on her head, and her two little twintails were sticking up.

The wild heavenly lightning was a little stunned. She didn't die? The bolts must have missed just now! Since they originally were not aiming at her, it was inevitable that they were a little out of practice. Again! They didn't believe that they could not kill this smelly brat!

Boom! Boom!

Another few bolts of heavenly lightning struck her.

The people closed their eyes again. This little girl had a Heavenly Thunder Spirit Root after all, so she could withstand a few more strikes than them. This time it was definitely going to be tough.

After the lightning stopped, they heard Yun Chujiu say lazily, "Sigh, I'm getting bored here. Can you hit me with something with more strength? The strikes you used so far are too weak!"

Everyone was dumbfounded. The little girl was still fine? Damn, the heavenly thunder spirit root was really strong!

The wild heavenly lightning was not in a good mood! It was humiliation! After two rounds of repeated lightning strikes, they still couldn't kill the little girl. It was embarrassing!

Boom! Boom!

The wild heavenly lightning gathered a larger fist-sized heavenly lightning bolt and struck at Yun Chujiu again.

It was over! Many people felt that Yun Chujiu would not survive this time! Those were fist-sized heavenly lightning bolts! The normal heavenly lightning bolts from earlier were just child's play compared to this!
