

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 786

The first group attacked for about half an hour. Yun Chujiu waved her small hands and said, "First group, retreat. Second group, Attack!"

This cycle repeated several times. The dazzling light produced by both groups of immortal and spirit tools was so dazzling that it was almost impossible to open one's eyes.

Fu Ao and the other three twitched as they watched. Oh my god! To be able to command more than a hundred spirit tools at the same time, not to mention the spiritual sense, just the spiritual power required was enough to scare people! If it were an ordinary person, just a single wave of attacks would have exhausted their spiritual power.

Yun Chujiu commanded the spirit tools to attack a specific area. The smaller the area of focus, the easier it would be to damage the targeted area.

When an area of the enchantment was attacked, the array formation would not be repaired immediately. There would be a short interval of time before it began to self-repair. Therefore, if one wanted to break the enchantment, one had to carry out continuous attacks so that the one damaged the formation array faster than the speed at which it would repair itself. Only then would there be a possibility of cracks appearing.

Yun Chujiu was pleasantly surprised to find that the power of the array formation this time was not as great as the first one. After a few rounds of attacks, the barrier began to tremble.

Yun Chujiu became more confident and commanded the spiritual tools to continuously attack.

In the beginning, Yun Chujiu was still at ease. After all, these spiritual tools all had their own spirits. Yun Chujiu did not need to expend any spiritual sense to order the tools to attack a single area. She just needed to direct where the attacks should be.

However, these spirit tools required a large amount of spiritual power when they attacked the array. Although Yun Chujiu had stored a lot of spiritual power, it was still difficult for her to keep things up at the rate the spiritual power was being expended.

Seeing that the barrier was trembling more and more violently, Yun Chujiu could not afford to falter. She gritted her teeth and held on.

In the end, Yun Chujiu simply sat cross-legged and continued to refine the power of lightning from the Strange Grass. Even so, it was still not enough to satisfy the rate at which her spiritual power was consumed.

Yun Chujiu started to feel reluctant despite being close to breaking the barrier. Although the Strange Grass could provide a continuous supply of power of lightning, she could not keep up with the refining speed, so she started to have doubts. She only needed to hold on for another hour, and the enchantment would crack.

Could she give up just like that? She was unwilling to! If she were to start all over again, she would not be able to do as well that time.

Just when Yun Chujiu felt extremely vexed, Fu Ao and the other three said to Yun Chujiu, "Little girl, release the remnant souls. Although things might not go well for us when we attack the barrier, it shouldn't be a big problem if we only attack it for a short while. We can still bear it. At most, we can spend more time resting to recover."

Yun Chujiu was overjoyed. She didn't have time to for any pleasantries now. She quickly released the remnant souls and let them join the attack while Yun Chujiu started to quickly refine the power of lightning from the Strange Grass, she was prepared to give the barrier a fatal blow at the last moment.

An hour later, a small crack had begun to appear in the barrier. Although it was not enough to let Yun Chujiu out, it was already ninety percent successful. As long as she gave it her all, she would definitely be able to get out.

Yun Chujiu began to command the spirit tools to attack. She put the remnant souls into the spirit beast bag so that they would be unable to get out when they escaped the barrier.

When the barrier trembled more and more violently, Yun Chujiu commanded two groups of spirit tools to attack simultaneously. Finally, the crack was large enough to accommodate one person!

“Follow me and charge out together!” Yun Chujiu and the spirit tools rushed out of the barrier immediately.

Yun Chujiu was extremely excited and relieved.. F*ck, she had finally got out of the barrier! However, her relief turned to shock when she saw the scene in front of her!
