

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 797

Yun Chujiu was both happy and worried. She was happy that there seemed to be no array formation here, and she had finally escaped from the sea area that she was trapped in. At the same time, she was worried about the reason that flying spirit tools and talismans were prohibited in this area. What the hell was this place?

Yun Chujiu suddenly remembered that she had once read about a particular area of sea in the library. There was an Endless Sea a million li away from the Spirit Radiance Sect.

Flying was prohibited in the sky above the Endless Sea, and talismans could not be used. The Demon Beasts in the sea were not only diverse but also very fierce.

However, the Endless Sea produced a kind of giant sea clam. Its body would have water-proof beads of different sizes. Although the effect was much worse than water-proof beads, embedding it on equipment would imbue it with certain water-proofing effects, moreover, a person could hold it in his mouth for fifteen minutes without drowning.

Because this kind of water-proof bead was only available in the Endless Sea, it was very expensive. There were often fishermen and cultivators who risked diving into the sea to collect said beads.

Yun Chujiu's small face twitched. The Endless Sea, as the name suggested, was infinitely big! Moreover, there were many sea beasts in the Endless Sea. Her small body would not be able to cope here!

She was still worried about letting the old bastard out. It seemed that she could only take things one step at a time! It would be best if she could meet a ship that came to harvest waterproof beads. Even if she could not, she could still find an island to rest on! It had been such a long time since she saw land. She really missed it!

Yun Chujiu was stunned for a moment. She blinked her eyes and put on the ring that hid her gender.

She took out a set of men's clothes from the storage ring and wore it over her clothes. She also changed her hairstyle into a man's hairstyle and decorated her eyebrows and facial features briefly.

Now that she had learned her lesson, it was better to dress as a man.

Yun Chujiu decided to go downstream. That way, she could save her energy and find the right direction.

Perhaps because there were a lot of fish in this area, the sea beasts were not lacking in food. Yun Chujiu floated on the sea for more than half a day, but there was not a single sea beast that attacked.

When it was almost evening, Yun Chujiu saw a small island in front of her. It was lush, and there should be many plants growing on it. She was very excited, and she could finally "Get down to Earth".

An hour later, Yun Chujiu approached the small island.

Yun Chujiu put the raft into her storage ring, and then carefully walked onto the beach.

In the distance was a dense forest. Yun Chujiu tilted her ear to listen for a moment. It was very quiet, and there were no sounds of demon beasts. However, Yun Chujiu did not dare enter the dense forest unprepared.

On the beach, the field of vision was wide, and it was easy to be on guard. If she entered the dense forest, she would be in an unfamiliar place, and it would be very easy to get lost.

Yun Chujiu took out her voice transmission talisman and tried it, but it still could not be used. She sighed. It seemed that she could only rely on herself. The gigolo would never dream that she would end up in such a distant Endless Sea.

Yun Chujiu let out the Flaming Three-tailed Fox King and let it disguise itself as a Two-tailed Scarlet Flame Fox to stand guard for her. Then, she took out the all-purpose small tent and lay down. She proceeded to sleep and snore the entire night, much to the Fox King's annoyance.

In those few days, Yun Chujiu did not dare to relax for even a moment. Even though she had been on the turtle's back for a few days, she was still on tenterhooks. Who knew when that bastard would turn hostile?

When she slept until midnight, the Flaming Three-tailed Fox King suddenly let out a shrilly scream. Yun Chujiu was so scared that she jumped up.
