

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 802

Yun Chujiu's lightning was like a small purple loach, casually moving toward the Red-spotted Swordfish!

That was right. It was moving!

Its speed was slow—like a slow motion replay—moving bit by bit, making people anxious with anticipation.

The Giant Tsunami Turtle curled its lips unkindly. This little girl was very powerful on the surface of the water, but it did not expect her to be so weak in the water! Such a weak little lightning probably would not even kill a Tier One sea creature!

Yun Chujiu was also dumbfounded, 'Damn it!! What the hell was this?!' Was that the lightning that she struck out? Was that even worthy of being called lightning!? It was simply a little loach! No, even the loach swam faster than it!

Although the Red-spotted Swordfish was very disdainful, it still swam to the side quickly. It was not to avoid Yun Chujiu's lightning bolt, but to avoid the Giant Tsunami Turtle. While it was in a daze, it quickly fled for its life.

However, at that moment, something that shocked everyone happened!

The slow purple loach actually pivoted! After pivoting, it still slowly chased after the Red-spotted Swordfish!

The Giant Tsunami Turtle's big eyes were about to pop out! 'F*ck!! How can a lightning bolt turn?! Fortunately, it was slow, or else it would have been dead!

The Red-spotted Swordfish was shocked, but it was relieved to see that the little purple loach was still so slow. It continued to swim forward at a fast speed.

Although Yun Chujiu was surprised that the little purple loach could turn, she was still very disappointed. With its speed, it could not even catch up with a snail, let alone chase after demon beasts in the sea.

Just when Yun Chujiu was extremely disappointed, the little purple loach suddenly sped up. The Red-spotted Swordfish was not prepared at all and was instantly struck! Then, it flipped over and died!

The little purple lightning disappeared as well, as if nothing had happened.

The Giant Tsunami Turtle was dumbfounded. 'Damn! How does it know how to do this? That little purple loach actually knows how to confuse the enemy?

'You must be joking! Although this little girl concealed her strength, she's only at the third level of the Spirit Emperor realm. How could her spiritual power manifest spiritual intelligence? This is impossible!

'The lightning must've been a countercurrent, which was why it moved slowly. Then, it sped up because of another countercurrent. Yes, it must be like that!'

Yun Chujiu could not believe it either. The Ice Dragon that the gigolo's power transformed into had intelligence and could kill demon beasts on its own. However, the one she used was clearly in the shape of a lightning bolt. Moreover, her spiritual power was so low. How could the lightning have intelligence? It must be a coincidence. She tried again.

Thinking of this, Yun Chujiu also shot out a lightning toward a Tier Four Swordfin Pomfret.

The Giant Tsunami Turtle stopped hunting and the sea creatures stopped running. They stared at the purple lightning that was also moving forward slowly.

The Tier Four Pomfret had learned its lesson from the Swordfish. It swam forward quickly and kept changing directions.

The purple lightning accelerated and chased after it.

The Swordfin Pomfret saw the purple lightning bolt chasing after it and swam forward desperately. However, the purple lightning bolt behind it was extremely fast. In just a few seconds, the purple lightning bolt had caught up, the Swordfin Pomfret died miserably...
