

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 808

"Damn it! It is indeed a heartless bastard. It left just like that!" Yun Chujiu, who had fallen into the sea, muttered as she swam toward the direction of the big ship.

Yun Chujiu estimated that the distance was close enough, only then did she emerge from the water. She waved her arms and shouted, "Help! Help!"

The big ship soon arrived in front of Yun Chujiu. A rope was thrown down from the ship. Yun Chujiu grabbed the rope and was dragged onto the big ship.

"Thank you! Thank you! I will never forget the kindness of saving my life." After Yun Chujiu was dragged onto the ship, she bowed and thanked everyone.

"Ha! Kid, you don't have to be so polite. After all, there are conditions for us to save you!" a sinister voice said.

Yun Chujiu was busy thanking them just now and did not carefully examine the people on the ship. When she heard someone say this, she could not help but raise her head and see dozens of people standing in front of her. The person who was talking to her was a middle-aged man in a black attire, the lower left corner of the suit was embroidered with a striking white fish bone.

Yun Chujiu had a bad premonition. She heard that in the Endless Sea, other than the dangerous sea creatures, there were also some pirates who specialized in robbing cultivators who collected water-proof beads. Could it be that she had encountered pirates?!

F*ck! If that was really the case, she would be in trouble! Even if she could escape, how could she reach the shore now that Big Bastard was gone?!

Yun Chujiu said in a cowardly manner, "Saviour, what do you mean by that? I don't quite understand."

The middle-aged man laughed wildly, “You don’t understand? You really are a little bastard! We’re from the Fishbone Gang, and we specialize in killing people and stealing treasures. We saved you for the storage bag on your body. Your corpse can also be used as bait to fish for some sea creatures. Isn’t that killing two birds with one stone? Hahaha!”

Yun Chujiu pretended to be afraid and started trembling. However, her eyes swept across everyone’s strength. Those who were able to become pirates in the Endless Sea were not weak. Most of these people were above the fifth level of the Spirit Cultivator realm. There were also five people at the level of the Spirit Emperor. Yun Chujiu estimated that if they were on land, she and Little Black could fight with them together. However, they were on the ship now, and it was their territory. It was better to be safe.

Should she jump into the sea? If she jumped into the sea, they would definitely not be able to catch her again. However, without the Big Bastard, it would be difficult for her to reach the shore. She might as well take the ship and leave a few people alive so that they could send her to the shore. Yes, that was the plan!

“Leader!! To be honest, the reason why I fell into the sea was because I was robbed. Now, I have nothing on me! However, I am also a fifth level Spirit Cultivator. If you don’t mind, take me as your subordinate! I don’t have any other skills, but my cooking skills are still very good!” Yun Chujiu said while trembling.

The middle-aged man sized up Yun Chujiu and thought to himself that this little bastard was so scared that he was trembling, so he was probably not lying. Alright! I’ll give you a chance. Prepare lunch for me immediately. If I’m satisfied with the food, I’ll keep you. If not, I’ll kill you immediately to be bait!”

Yun Chujiu nodded excitedly. “I’ll definitely cook well. I’ll definitely make sure you’re satisfied with your meal!”

“Bring him to the kitchen. Keep an eye on him! If he tries to trick you, just kill him!”

“Yes!”

Yun Chujiu was brought to the kitchen by two pirates. The kitchen was a mess. Apparently, these pirates only needed to fill their stomachs and did not bother cooking at all.

Yun Chujiu had a slight chance of winning. Although her culinary skills were average, it was more than enough to deal with these pirates. As long as she put in some effort, she did not have to worry about not being able to stay.
