

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 810

"Little Stone, do you still hate the fact that the gang leader wanted to kill you back then to be bait? Sigh! This so-called precaution must be taken. It's not easy to muddle along in this Endless Sea. If we don't scare you, who knows if you're a traitor from some faction?!"

"I wouldn't say anything about which pirate gang is better than the other. However, our Fishbone Gang never massacred fishermen indiscriminately, much less plundering women like other pirates! We basically have no other way to live, so we choose to be pirates. Who would be willing to float on the sea all day doing this kind of life-risking business?"

"Uncle Wang, I'm a foreigner, so I don't know much about the Endless Sea. Didn't you say that waterproof beads are very valuable? Your spiritual power is not low, so why don't you just collect the waterproof beads and sell them?" Yun Chujiu asked in confusion.

"Humph! The waterproof beads might be very expensive to sell, but the business of purchasing the waterproof beads was monopolized by the Yongxing Trading Company. They didn't allow fishermen to sell them to others. They bought them at a very low price and then sold them to earn a lot of money. Those fishermen couldn't earn much money even if they worked hard.

"If they found out that any fisherman was trading with outsiders, they would immediately kill their entire family and say that they're pirates. That Yongxing Trading Company is even crueler than us!" Fatty Wang said angrily..

Yun Chujiu was skeptical after hearing that. Why was this Endless Sea different from other places? Pirates were even kinder than merchants? If Yongxing Trading Company was really like what fatty Wang said, then her plan had to be changed. She could not help the devil!

"Uncle Wang, where is the Yongxing Trading Company's ship? We haven't seen any trace of them here, have we?" Yun Chujiu asked curiously.

“I heard that the place they are going to is not far from Crab Island. Let’s set up an ambush nearby and then ambush them.”

“Crab Island? There’s such an island? Could it be that the island is shaped like a crab?” Yun Chujiu could not help but feel a little dumbfounded. ‘Crab Island? F*ck! ! It can’t be that island full of coconut trees that I left back then, right?!’

“Haha! Your Imagination is pretty good, kid. There are huge coconut trees growing on crab island. The giant pincer crab likes to eat ripe coconut fruits. At night, it will go ashore to search for food, so it’s called Crab Island.”

When Yun Chujiu heard that, she was stunned! It was not easy for her to ride the Big B*stard and leave the so-called Crab Island. Now, she was going back again!

In the next few days, the pirate ship was indeed heading toward the small island that was covered with coconut trees. Although Yun Chujiu was so depressed that she wanted to vomit blood, she could only follow them back to where she came from.

After interacting with her for the past few days, the members of the Fishbone Gang had basically let down their guard against Yun Chujiu. Yun Chujiu realized that other than a few of them who were extremely lazy, there were really no evil people among them.

It seemed that they were only reacting according to the circumstances. If that Yongxing Trading Company was not a good company, then she could help the Fishbone Gang.

A few days later, the Fishbone Gang’s ship arrived near Crab Island. Since they knew the dangers of Crab Island, they did not go on the island. Instead, they waited nearby for the arrival of the Yongxing Trading Company’s ship.

“Gang leader, I heard that the Yongxing Trading Company is going to the sea area ahead. It is said that there are very few giant sea clams that produce waterproof beads, and there are also very few high-level sea creatures. What are they going there for?" A pirate asked the Fishbone Gang's gang leader in confusion.

"Do whatever you want. Let's just rob them. I heard that the people who came this time are all the thugs of the Yongxing Trading Company. They must have a lot of Spirit Stones on them. Anyway, they're not good people. Just kill them!" the leader of the Fishbone Gang said coldly.
