

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 814

Si Tuzhi was stunned for a moment. Then, he quickly sent out a few wind blades to block the purple lightning. The purple lightning was consumed by the wind blades before it dissipated.

Although it did not hurt him, Si Tuzhi was still shocked by what happened. This kid was too strange! He had never seen or heard of a spiritual power attack that could change directions while in the water!

The people of the Yongxing Trading Company arrived one after another. Si Tuzhi gestured to them to surround and attack Yun Chujiu.

Countless water arrows and wind blades shot towards Yun Chujiu. She calmly sank into the water and dodged the attack. At the same time, she raised her hand, and the surrounding seawater turned black.

Ever since she had fought with the bloodthirsty sword shark, she gave a new task to Furry, which was to make various dyes.

The people of the Yongxing Trading Company had never seen a person like Yun Chujiu who did not play by the rules. They were dumbfounded by her actions!

The seawater in front of them was pitch black, and everyone was blinded. However, the lightning could still track its targets. After a few moments, several people from the Yongxing Trading Company let out miserable cries. They ended up swallowing their waterproofing beads so they could only paddle as hard as they could to reach the surface before drowning. They no longer had the time to go after Yun Chujiu.

Seeing this, Si Tuzhi quickly gestured for everyone to get on the boat. It was really disadvantageous for them in the water.

Yun Chujiu would not give them a chance to get on the boat. She waved her hands repeatedly, and several little lightning bolts chased after them.

The people from the Yongxing Trading Company had no choice but to use wind blades and water arrows to dissolve the lightning bolts. This slowed them down considerably. However, they had the advantage in numbers, and there were more of their people swimming over one.

Fortunately, the people of the Fishbone Gang had also caught up. Although they were all injured, they were much more agile in the water than the people of the Yongxing Trading Company. Moreover, they had almost died at the hands of the people of the Yongxing Trading Company, so they naturally would be eager to repay the favor.

Si Tuzhi and the four spirit emperor rank guard commanders surrounded Yun Chujiu. As long as they took down this little brat first, the rest of the people had nothing to be afraid of.

Yun Chujiu rolled her eyes. She waved her hand and sent out several bolts of purple lightning. At the same time, she summoned five immortal swords and commanded them to attack the five of them.

These five immortal swords had already accepted their fate. This brat was a shameless liar! She said that she would cancel the contract after she left the ancient sword tomb. However, it had been so long. Not only did she not cancel the contract, but she was also ordering us around. She was too shameless!

However, they were dissatisfied and did not dare to resist. The moment they showed any signs of resistance, they would be scratched by the little silver dragon. They were on the verge of breaking down.

Si Tuzhi and the others were also on the verge of breaking down. F*ck!! Who was this little brat?! This was too strange! Not only was his spiritual power attack able to change directions, but he could also command five spiritual weapons at the same time. He was too scary!

If they had known that the Fishbone Gang had such an ace up their sleeve, they would have gotten off their high horse and let them leave. It was too late to regret now.

An hour later, Yun Chujiu and the Fishbone Gang began to gain the upper hand. The people of the Yongxing Trading Company gradually lost. As Si Tuzhi was heavily injured by Yun Chujiu, the rest of his crew began to lose their fighting spirit and expressed their willingness to surrender.

Yun Chujiu asked Yu Hai to lead people to imprison the spirit energy of the people of the Yongxing Trading Company and dragged them to the large ship of the Yongxing Trading Company.

After everyone boarded the large ship of the Yongxing Trading Company, Yun Chujiu asked Fatty Wang to go to the cockpit to wake up Zhao Wu and return to the ship.
