

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 826

In order to express their sincerity, Yu Hai and the others all swore an oath of loyalty to Yun Chujiu. Although Yun Chujiu said that she did not need it, she did not actually do anything to stop them. It was good that they swore an oath—at least she could be at ease.

After the matter was almost settled, Yun Chujiu got everyone to board their flying spirit tools and set off to return to the Spirit Radiance Sect.

This fellow leaned back on the recliner and secretly thought, 'It's good to have subordinates! Someone's piloting the flying spirit tool, and someone else is in charge of guarding it. I'm just in charge of reading a book. How satisfying!'

This fellow rubbed her chin. She had to give her future faction a good name that was unbridled, cool, and overbearing. What name would be good?

The gigolo's name was the Hall of Longevity, the black-headed chicken was the Demon Blood Sect, and the Spider Lily forces were called the Godly Devil Hall. There were also the Spirit Radiance Sect, Skyblade sect, Heavenly Gates sect, and Bixiao Palace. She had to give them a good name that was different from theirs!

The Little Jiu Sect? It did not sound good! The Heavenly Thunder Sect? It did not sound good either!

Got it! Her sect was called the Thunder Sect. Hahaha! This name was great! The Thunder Sect... The Thunder ancestor! 'Damn that old bastard heavenly lightning, I told you to always strike me with lightning, so I'll be your superior from now on!'

Little Black and the other two looked at each other. The Thunder Sect? Damn it, only their black-hearted master could come up with such a name!

When Yu Hai and the others heard Yun Chujiu's demonic laughter, they could not help but shiver. What bad ideas did their master hatch this time?! Why did this laughter sound so scary?!

"Yu Hai! Come here for a moment, I have something to tell you!"

"Master! You called me?" Yu Hai felt uneasy in his heart. 'Why did the little devil summon me?'

"Don't call me master in the future. Call me Sect Master, understand? From now on, our faction will be called the Thunder Sect! Wait until I find an auspicious land, then our Thunder Sect will officially open for business!"

Yu Hai was confused when he heard this. Thunder Sect? Although it was not very unique, it made sense. However, what did this open for business mean?

"Sect Master, what does this open for business mean?"

"Of course it means to make money. Otherwise, how are we going to develop our sect? We have to base ourselves on business. With money, we can attract more cultivators. With money, we can buy spiritual weapons. With money, we can develop and grow. In short, we have to make money first!"

"Sect Master, then what business do we do?"

"Of course, money has to come quickly! Medicinal pills! We have to open a medicine shop first!"

"Sect master, this... this medicine shop may be a good business idea, but we have to have a full-time alchemist. Without someone making the medicinal pills, this business will not be easy to do," Yu Hai said with a frown.

"Tsk! What Alchemist do you need? I, alone, am enough!" Yun Chujiu raised her neck and said smugly.

The corner of Yu Hai's eyes twitched. 'Was their master talking nonsense? What did he mean by it's enough to have him? Can the medicinal pills refined by you be sold in even a single shop?'

"That's right! Our medicine shop needs to take the high-end route. We only sell high-grade and superior-grade medicinal pills. We don't sell ordinary medicinal pills! We must be high-end and high-class. We must scam the money of those fools. Do you understand?" Yun Chujiu rolled her eyes and said.

The corner of Yu Hai's eyes twitched again. Why did he feel that they were going to set up an illicit shop? Forget it. They were pirates after all, so it would be easy for them to set up such a shop. Moreover, high-grade elixirs could be bought at a high price. These super-grade elixirs could only be found by chance, not by request. Where could they get them?

Yun Chujiu saw the suspicious look on Yu Hai's face and did not explain. When the time came, he would naturally find out if this sect master was just speaking nonsense or not!

"Forget it. You will understand in the future! First, pass on the spirit of our conversation to them." Yun Chujiu leaned back on the recliner, picked up the book, and started reading.

Yu Hai nodded. Just as he was about to leave, he glanced at the cover of the book in Yun Chujiu's hand and fell on his butt.
