

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 827

"My Eighty-One Male Pets"?

'Oh my God! I didn't expect it! I didn't expect it! Our sect master is actually a queer man!'

Yu Hai inexplicably felt a little cold!

Could this be considered as a sheep entering the tiger's mouth! They were all serious men. They were male and liked women. They did not like this type of thing!

The sect master had so many bad ideas. He would not rape them in the future, would he?! F*ck?! What Thunder Sect? Would they not become a "Harmonious and Happy" sect in the future?!

Yu Hai trembled as he glanced at the stack of books on the table next to him. "Handsome Husbands Sitting in a Row", "My Three Thousand Beautiful Male Harem", "All the Beautiful Husbands" ...

Yu Hai was 100% sure that his sect master liked men!

When Yun Chujiu saw that Yu Hai had fallen for no reason, she smiled and said, "Yu Hai, what's wrong? Is this matter so difficult to accept? Take your time to digest it. You will understand."

Yu Hai answered vaguely. He got up and ran back to the cockpit. He thought to himself, 'Take your time to digest it?' Even if he was given 500 years, he would not be able to accept it. He was straight.

Yun Chujiu frowned slightly. Was it not just opening a medicine shop? Was there a need to be so excited? He was probably too excited after hearing her plan. His mental endurance was too poor! Yes, that must be the case.

Yu Hai returned to the cockpit with a pale face. The rest of the people asked in confusion, "Boss, what happened to you? What did the master say to you?"

"No, nothing much. Master said that from now on, our faction will be called Thunder Sect. From now on, we will call him Sect Master. We will start with a medicine shop business first," Yu Hai said absentmindedly.

"Thunder Sect? Why does this name sound strange?"

"What's so strange about it?! Isn't our sect master a Heavenly Thunder Root Spirit? It's just right for our sect to be called Thunder Sect!"

"What you said makes sense! But is it reliable to open a medicine shop? Doesn't a medicine shop have to have a regular alchemist working together? Alchemists are all very arrogant. Where can we contact an alchemist?"

"That's right, boss. What did the sect master say?"

Yu Hai was stunned for a moment and said absent-mindedly, "Sect master said that he can handle it by himself."

"What? Sect master said that he can handle it by himself? Could it be that the sect master is an alchemist?"

"Even if the sect master is an alchemist, it's not enough. It's impossible for a person to run a medicine shop. Boss, don't you think so? Boss? What's wrong with you? Why are you so distracted? Did the sect master say something else?"

Yu Hai gritted his teeth and said in a low voice, "Brothers, I've discovered something incredible. You must resist it!"

“Boss, what’s the matter?” Those few people were so scared that their hearts trembled. Boss had always been a tough man who did not change his expression even under tremendous pressure. What on Earth had scared him to this extent?!

“Sect master, sect master, he... he’s so manly!” Yu Hai squeezed out a few words from between his teeth.

“What?!”

Everyone instantly exploded!

With a delicate and pretty face instantly crossed his hands and covered his chest. “No, it can’t be?! I’m the most handsome among us. Sect Master, Sect Master won’t let me serve him in bed, right?!”

“Ptooy! Are you shameless?! How do you know that Sect Master likes someone like you? Perhaps the sect master likes someone like our leader who is strong and powerful! Don’t you see that sect master always looks for our leader to discuss everything? It’s obvious that he has a good impression of our leader.”

Yu Hai’s face turned even paler. If the sect master really wanted him to obey him, what should he do? Back then, he had made a poison vow. No matter what the sect master said, he had to do it. Otherwise, his soul would disintegrate!

Yu Hai’s heart was on the verge of collapse. Oh God, who could save him?!
