

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 873

Damn!

Was this Yun Chujiu human?!

How was this a fifth-level spirit cultivator's spiritual power?! It was more like a fifth-level spirit emperor realm practitioner!

Moreover, why could she attack without forming a seal and without pausing between attacks?! Wasn't this too outrageous for a normal human?!

Everyone, especially those who had once spoken ill of Yun Chujiu, felt a chill run down their spines. Damn, it was fortunate that Yun Chujiu did not bother punishing them, or else they would have been turned into ash by her lightning bolts.

Those demonic beasts were even more shocked. They had originally thought that the Leopard King was too cowardly. After getting that embarrassing haircut from her lightning strikes, it helped that Little Devil run errands. Now that they saw it in action, it was a very wise choice, otherwise, its life would definitely be lost.

Yun Chujiu continuously threw lightning bolts for two hours. Everyone and the other beasts were so shocked that their tongues were sticking out. Oh god, how could this Little Devil have so much spiritual energy reserves? Could it be that her spiritual energy was inexhaustible? It was too...

Too terrifying! They must not offend her in the future, or else they would definitely end up six feet under!

Yun Chujiu felt that the time was almost right to halt her performance, so she stopped attacking. When she turned around, she saw that everyone was in a daze, as if they had seen a ghost.

“What’s wrong? Did something happen?” Yun Chujiu asked the crowd in feigned confusion.

The crowd shook their heads and smiled nervously. They were extremely obedient, afraid that they would be struck by Yun Chujiu if they said the wrong thing.

Yun Chujiu could not help but laugh. It seemed that all doubts had been erased with a simple show of strength. If she had known that this would shut them up, she would have struck them a few times.

“I have already tested the strength of this barrier. I estimate that we will have to take turns to attack it for three days and three nights before we have a chance to break through it. Now, we will divide into groups and attack according to our assigned schedules. There can not be any pause in the attack or all the previous efforts will be wasted. If there anyone gets lazy or careless during this period, don’t blame me for accidentally hitting them with my lightning.” Yun Chujiu’s smile changed from one of kindness to one filled with killing intent.

The Beast Horde could not help but tremble in their hearts. This was the true appearance of a little fiend. They should just tuck their tails between their legs and obey her every command. They absolutely could not offend this little fiend.

After Yun Chujiu had divided everyone into groups, they began to take turns attacking the barrier.

In an instant, light flashed and all kinds of spiritual power attacks were launched towards the barrier!

The hidden rune spirit cried out in alarm. If this continued, wouldn’t all these people and beasts escape? It had to stop them.

Everyone noticed that the sky was getting darker, and they could not help but look up. They saw a large patch of dark clouds starting to gather. Was it going to rain, or was it going to rain lightning bolts?

Yun Chujiu frowned. This rune spirit was quite cunning. Was it going to stop them from attacking the barrier? She had to think of a way to let it focus on her alone. These people would not be able to withstand a lightning strike. A lightning bolt from the Wu Yun here might leave them half dead.

“Hey! You Little Weakling Wu Yun, are you finally making an appearance? You coward! Do you dare to strike me?” Yun Chujiu took out a handkerchief to wrap up her hair, then pointed at the dark clouds in the sky and provoked the gathering Wu Yun.

The Wu Yun was unable to contain its anger. Previously, it did not strike you because it was afraid of expending Spirit Stones. Since you were looking for death, then it would target you first. After that, it would take care of the rest.

Boom!

A bolt of purple lightning struck towards Yun Chujiu.

As soon as Yun Chujiu cursed the Wu Yun that had appeared, everyone and the beasts put some distance between them and Yun Chujiu.. That was a bolt of lightning from an array formation’s Wu Yun! They did not want to be caught in the crossfire and turned into ash!
