

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 876

Those people and beasts did not know that Yun Chujiu had a trump card. When they saw that Yun Chujiu had selflessly stayed behind, they were extremely touched. Even those initially snobbish ones felt a sense of sorrow. Although this Yun Chujiu was an eccentric person, she had a good heart.

When it was Yun Chujiu's turn to exit the barrier, a tsunami of cheers and roars greeted her. At that moment, Yun Chujiu understood why some people wanted to be heroes! It turned out that the feeling of being worshipped and appreciated by others was a kind of sensation that came from the bottom of one's heart. It was different from the satisfaction of being rich. It was a kind of spiritual satisfaction. She could not help but laugh at herself. Did she sublimate herself?!

Yun Chujiu waved her hands. "Everyone, since we have managed to escape, please go on ahead! Little Bun, do you want to find a place to wait or come with me? After I save the people from the East Valley, I will find you a suitable place for you to live."

The demonic beasts hesitated for a while, and a small group of them decided to leave on their own. After all, the East Valley was not like the West Valley. Perhaps this little girl would not be able to get out from there! Moreover, there was already somewhere appealing in front of them. It would be a good place to make a new home.

After most of the demonic beasts had seen Yun Chujiu's power, they felt that the rune spirit of the East Valley would definitely not be able to defeat this Little Devil. Moreover, the situation was still uncertain, so it was better to let her help them choose a good place to settle down.

These demonic beasts now had a lot of confidence in Yun Chujiu. Among them, the Leopard King was the most obvious in his admiration of her. It was extremely flattering, wagging its big tail like a little kitten.

"Get out of the way! Get out of the way! All of you get out of the way! Little Sister Little Jiu, I've been worried sick about you! I haven't been eating or drinking these few days, and I've lost weight. If you don't come out now, I'm going to starve to death!" Xue Wuji squeezed in from the crowd of people and beasts.

Yun Chujiu looked at Xue Wuji, whose face was glowing red, and pursed her lips. Come on, you have to have some credibility when you're lying!

Seeing that the jig was up, Xue Wuji laughed dryly. "Little Sister Jiu I accidentally mixed up my words. I was too worried about you, so I turned my grief and anger into an appetite. I ate too much and got fatter!"

Yun Chujiu smiled. "Brother Wuji, I'm sorry I made you worry! I'll rest for the night. Tomorrow morning, we'll enter the East Valley."

Xue Wuji was dazed by Yun Chujiu's bright smile. He felt that Little Sister Jiu was too beautiful. When he came back to his senses, he found that Yun Chujiu had already grabbed Di Beiming's arm and was skipping in the other direction.

The bitterness in his heart was even stronger than drinking a hundred jars of old vinegar.

'Why couldn't Little Sister Jiu see his good side? Why did she have to like that cold and rigid face when he was clearly a hundred times better looking than Di Beiming?'

Xue Wuji sat to at side dejectedly and felt that his entire being was on the verge of collapse!

When many female disciples saw this scene, their little hearts pounded. This Yun Chuling was simply too handsome, especially his melancholic appearance. It was too tempting!

When Xue Wuji regained his senses, he saw a few female disciples looking at him infatuatedly. When they saw Xue Wuji looking at them, they could not help but blush, looking extremely bashful.

When Xue Wuji saw this, his confidence returned once again!

It seemed that this young master's charm was undeniable. Little Jiu must have been bewitched by Di Beiming. After a long time, she would naturally see how appealing he was. Yes, he should not be discouraged. Little Jiu must be his.. After all, he was the most suitable person for her!
