

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 879

Unfortunately, Yun Chujiu was distracted by a Golden Witch Hazel by the roadside. She did not pay attention to Xue Wuji at all, she replied casually, "Then thank you, Brother Wuji! Haha, I was just worried about how to refine a spirit-nourishing pill for a Little Loach. I didn't even need to spend any effort to get it."

Yun Chujiu dug out the golden plant with a small shovel as she spoke, too busy to care about the details.

Xue Wuji was so depressed that he wanted to vomit blood. He had secretly practiced this affectionate gaze for a long time, but it was missed by Little Sister Jiu just like that!

Di Beiming stood at the side and said indifferently, "Xue Wuji, there are some things that can not be obtained by hard work. You should give up as soon as possible!"

"Hmph! There are no absolutes in life. Let's wait and see," Xue Wuji said with a cold snort.

Yun Chujiu had already dug out the Golden Witch Hazel and put it into the jade box before storing it in her storage ring. She asked with a smile, "Prince Charming, brother Wuji, what are you talking about? Why do you sound so excited? I find that your relationship is getting better and better!"

Di Beiming and Xue Wuji snorted at the same time. A good relationship? What a joke!

Yun Chujiu looked at the two of them and suddenly thought of something, 'This was the definition of a love-hate relationship!'

She immediately imagined a novel with a similar premise. To woo Xiaobei, Little Gong pretended to like a girl, but in fact, he was only interested in Xiaobei. While Xiaobei kept provoking Little Gong, hoping to get his attention...

“Hei, Little Jiu, what are you staring at?! Hurry up and follow me.” Di Beiming realized that the words “Black Thing” no longer fit Yun Chujiu. “White Thing” was a more appropriate nickname now.

“Di Beiming, can’t you be gentler to Little Sister Jiu? She has been digging for a long time, can’t she take a break?” Xue Wuji naturally would not let go of this opportunity to elevate himself and defame Di Beiming.

The corners of the eyes of Secret Agent Huahua and An Feng twitched. It seemed like Little Miss Jiu had been digging for less than half an hour, right?! How tiring could it be?! Moreover, the Ninth Miss was clearly in a daze just now, and the smile on her face looked so perverted no matter how one looked at it!

Yun Chujiu laughed dryly and hopped around to hold Di Beiming’s arm. She thought to herself, fortunately, the Pretty Boy was not attracted to others like him. Otherwise, she would not be able to enjoy meat in the future! Speaking of which, she was already 16 years old. Why had her period not yet start? If her body did not function normally, when would she become like fifth and seventh sisters?

“Little Sister Jiu, why don’t we catch a high-level demon beast later?! Just like at the West Valley, we’ll interrogate it about the whereabouts of the trapped people.”

“Little Sister Jiu?” Xue Wuji saw that Yun Chujiu didn’t respond, so he called out again.

Yun Chujiu finally came back to her senses. “Ah? Brother Wuji, what did you say?”

“I said, why don’t we capture a demonic beast to lead the way?” Xue Wuji couldn’t help but feel puzzled. What was Little Sister Jiu thinking of just now? Why was she so engrossed in her thoughts?

Yun Chujiu nodded. “Alright, let’s do it that way. Let’s see which unlucky bastard comes to us voluntarily.”

However, what made the five of them feel strange was that they had not encountered a single demonic beast the entire day, let alone a high-level one.

“Little Sister Jiu, could it be that this place is still isolated from the East Valley?”

“No! Look, there were obvious signs of people picking herbs and traces of demon beast activity. However, these marks are at least half a month old. Could it be that something happened to them? Or were they trapped somewhere else?” Yun Chujiu frowned and said..
