

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 895

"Everyone! Everyone, calm down and listen to me for a moment." Yun Chujiu leaped onto a huge rock and shouted at everyone.

At that moment, Yun Chujiu was someone everyone highly looked up to. Hearing her words, everyone's discussion gradually quieted down, and they all looked towards Yun Chujiu.

Yun Chujiu did not speak immediately. Instead, she released all the Demonic Beasts in the spirit beast pouch, then, she said with a cold expression, "We once discovered an evil formation of the Godly Devil Hall in Longping Mountain. Its methods were cruel and the scene was so horrific that it made one's hair stand on end.

"Tens of thousands of demonic beasts were chained to the ground or suspended in the air. Their blood and vitality flowed into the evil formation of the Godly Devil Hall, and that evil formation was used to search for the Eye of the Earth. Now that the Godly Devil Hall had captured the citizens of several cities, it will probably be used for the evil formation again.

"The Godly Devil Hall's ultimate goal is this. To find the Eye of the Earth and then absorb all the Qi in the Eye of the Earth. At that time, our Azure Mystic Continent would then become a secular land without any spiritual qi.

"At that time, whether it was humans or demon beasts, the path of longevity would be lost. The Godly Devil Hall is not my enemy alone, nor is it just the enemy of the four great sects. They are the enemies of the entire Azure Mystic Continent!

"It was true that the Godly Devil Hall had a mysterious background and even possess a strange secret technique of the Red Spider Lily. However, I, Yun Chujiu, firmly believe in one truth, that evil can not prevail over good. As long as we are united, we can definitely drive this so-called Godly Devil Hall out of the Azure Mystic Continent or destroy completely it.

“Everyone, whether it was for our own great path of immortality, or the lives of our relatives, friends, and future generations, we only have one choice now, and that is to unite as one. Regardless of whether we are humans or demonic beasts, regardless of whether we are men, women, or young, we must all contribute our strength to protect our home.

“Why is there still hot blood flowing in our bodies?! Because that is our inextinguishable fighting spirit. Even the ancient enchantment could not hold us, and even the shackles of the Tian Dao could not make us lose our desire to obtain immortality. What else can stop us from protecting our home?!

“Now, the Godly Devil Hall forces have already begun moving to make their evil plan come true. We must eliminate them before they completely gain a foothold and return the Azure Mystic Continent to a bright and peaceful state, instead of living under the shadow of death forever.

“I, Yun Chujiu, swear on my life that I will not rest until the Godly Devil Hall is destroyed! If everyone trusts me, then follow me back to the Spirit Radiance Sect and we’ll destroy the Godly Devil Hall in one fell swoop after meeting up with the survivors.

“In addition, my other identity has never been announced. I am not the personal disciple of Elder Sun Bozhong of the Spirit Radiance Sect. I am the personal disciple of Patriarch Linghua of the Spirit Radiance Sect, which is also the first generation of disciples of the Spirit Radiance Sect. Xuanyuan Changkong and the others call me little ancestor Yun.

“This is also the reason why my position in the Spirit Radiance Sect is so special. It is also the reason why I would rather risk my life to save all of you. It is because I have a responsibility and a mission on my shoulders. Now, I will take this Ninth Heaven Silver Dragon Windfire Rod that my master left me and lead all of you back to the Spirit Radiance Sect!”

After everyone and the beasts heard Yun Chujiu’s words, they immediately felt the blood in their bodies boil. There was only one thought in their minds, and that was to destroy the Godly Devil Hall! They would not let them destroy the Azure Mystic Continent.

The disciples of the Spirit Radiance Sect knelt on the ground. “The disciples of the Spirit Radiance Sect greet Little Ancestor Yun!”
