

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 897

The people that Yun Chujiu called out were the last batch of cultivators who voluntarily stayed behind with her group. Yun Chujiu took note of their names and remembered them after hearing them once.

The hundreds of people whose names were called out were ushered to the side by Yun Chujiu. After Yun Chujiu activated an isolation array, she said to everyone, "Everyone, the reason why I called out your names is firstly because your spiritual power is among the best among the people here. Secondly, after a period of observation, I completely trust your character. Therefore, I am more assured when I will leave the next task to you."

Before Yun Chujiu mentioned the task, she first put on a high hat for everyone. Everyone immediately felt a sense of honor and pride, and they straightened their backs.

"Five of you will form a group. Each group will be responsible for an area. You have two missions. The first is to investigate the other strongholds of the Godly Devil Hall.

"The second is to expose the Godly Devil Hall's evils to the public. I will write a proclamation of battle later. After you post it up everywhere and make the people of the Godly Devil Hall seem like street rats. This way, someone will report their whereabouts the minute they show up. Let them have no place to hide in the Azure Mystic Continent.

"Don't feel regretful for not participating in the battle with the Godly Devil Hall. What you will do is as important as the battle. If complete these two tasks well, you will cut off the Godly Devil Hall's escape route, giving them no chance to make a comeback in the future. Otherwise, even if we defeat them now, they will use secret arts to escape and secretly rebuild their forces. Therefore, the task given to you is very important. You must do your best." Yun Chujiu's expression was solemn, and the aura emanating from her body made people shudder in fear.

No one dared to raise any objections. Firstly, they were intimidated by Yun Chujiu's aura. Secondly, what Yun Chujiu said was reasonable. They had to cut off the Godly Devil Hall's escape route. Otherwise, even if they destroyed them now, they would still strike again in the future.

Seeing that no one had any objections, Yun Chujiu separated them into groups and then withdrew the isolation array.

Yun Chujiu took out a pen and paper from her storage ring and wrote a proclamation of battle. The basic content was similar to what she had said previously. After she finished writing, she saw her own crooked handwriting and felt that she really couldn't bring herself to do it, hence, she activated the isolation array. "Prince Charming, help me copy it in fancier handwriting."

The corner of Di Beiming's eyes twitched, but he still helped Yun Chujiu copy the proclamation. Yun Chujiu saw the article that Di Beiming wrote and then looked at her own. She decisively destroyed the one that she wrote. The difference was too f*cking embarrassing!

Yun Chujiu shamelessly handed the article that Di Beiming wrote to everyone. "Here, I just finished writing this. You guys take it and copy it!"

After everyone took the paper and read it, they praised it again and again. The content was not mentioned for the time being, but the writing was too good! The ink was like a hook. Vigorous and powerful. The momentum was magnificent, like a flood dragon coming out of the water.

Yun Chujiu, neither admitted nor denied that it was her handiwork. She just smiled and did not say anything. She thought to herself, 'There's no difference between me and the pretty boy. What's his is mine, and what's mine is his. Therefore, praising me and praising him are all the same.'

After the arrangements were made, Yun Chujiu waved her hands, and everyone split into their respective groups and boarded several flying spirit tools. A portion of them went on missions while the majority of them followed Yun Chujiu back to the Spirit Radiance Sect.

When they were still three days away from the Spirit Radiance Sect, everyone received another piece of bad news. The Spirit Radiance Sect's grand array had been broken, and both sides were embroiled in a chaotic battle.

Everyone turned pale from fright. The Spirit Radiance Sect's grand array was the strongest among the four great sects.. How could it be broken by the Godly Devil Hall?
