

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 916

"Prince Charming, where is the place where they went to swear their allegiance to the Godly Devil Hall? How did they set it up?" Yun Chujiu recalled that Ren Lizhi had once said that they, silver-masked men, had to go somewhere to be initiated into the Godly Devil Hall.

Di Beiming curled the corners of his lips. "It's at the evil formation that we destroyed at Longping Mountain. It seems that there's something else going on inside. After we're done here, we'll go check it out again."

Yun Chujiu nodded. The battle was nearing its end. The people from the Godly Devil Hall were no match for the Demonic Beasts. Moreover, when they saw that Su Yanran had disappeared, they lost their fighting spirit and were quickly annihilated.

Du Guyi's cultivation was crippled by Master Xuanyuan and his men. He was locked up because he was the only one who knew many secrets of the Heavenly Gates sect and had to be handed over to the Heavenly Gates sect to deal with.

Unexpectedly, Du Guyi suddenly bled to death from his orifices just as he was tied up.

Those gold-masked men who were used by Di Beiming to perform soul-searching on also ended up like Du Guyi. They bled to death from their orifices. It was probably done by that purple-masked man or Su Yanran using evil techniques. They were really ruthless.

Yun Chujiu arranged for a portion of people to stay behind to clean up the battlefield. Then, she brought a portion of people and all the Demon Beasts to the Heavenly Gates Sect to assist another group of cultivators.

Just as Yun Chujiu had guessed, the other group did not suffer much resistance after they arrived at the Heavenly Gates Sect. The followers of the Godly Devil Hall had all gone to the Spirit Radiance Sect. Other than a few gold-masked men, the rest were regular followers of the Heavenly Gates Sect. They had only been forced by Du Guyi and Su Yanran, so they had immediately turned against them after hearing that others were fighting against those two, they had helped them deal with the gold-masked men.

After killing the gold-masked men, they followed Yun Chujiu's instructions and first rescued the trapped commoners before destroying the evil formation.

By the time Yun Chujiu arrived, things had already come to an end. Yun Chujiu had left behind some alchemists to help the commoners, then brought everyone else to the Skyblade Sect and the Bixiao Palace.

It did not take much effort to subdue the two sects, and without exception, the gold-masked men and silver-masked men had all bled to death from their seven orifices. It was clear that the Godly Devil Hall had treated these people as pawns and had directly silenced them.

Everyone sighed. These people were still dreaming of ascending. Even if they could find the Eye of the Earth, they would probably end up like this. How foolish.

However, the Godly Devil Hall's ruthlessness could be seen from this. It was likely that only the purple-masked men would benefit, and the others were just chess pieces that could be discarded at any time.

Yun Chujiu led her men in a rush to Longping mountain without rest. What shocked them was that the original underground palace had been razed to the ground, and there was a burnt smell from inside, the Godly Devil Hall forces must have burned the things inside before destroying it.

A shadow could not help but cover the hearts of the people. They were afraid that the Godly Devil Hall would make a comeback.

Yun Chujiu cleared her throat and said, "Everyone, don't worry too much. Although we did not completely destroy the Godly Devil Hall this time, we have already eliminated the majority of their forces in the Azure Mystic Continent. Even if they want to make a comeback, it will take them several years. During this period, as long as everyone is on guard, it will not be easy for them to exert their influence.

Moreover, the person who saved Su Yanran is very likely to be the master. It seems that he must have torn through the void to save Su Yanran. This means that he can not step foot in the Azure Mystic Continent personally, he can only make use of his lackeys to help him accomplish his goals.

“Therefore, their strength won’t be too terrifying. As long as we are united, even if they make a comeback, we can destroy them again.”
