

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 920

Yun Chujiu recognized the silver-white fish. It was a Silver-Scaled Wrasse unique to the Sea of Stars. Its meat was delicious, but because it was a level 10 sea beast, it was hard to catch, so it was rarely sold on the market.

Yun Chujiu immediately forgot about the words that she had said to the Illusionary Electric Eel. She smiled amiably and said, "Little Loach, I knew you were a grateful person. Thank you for your generous gift."

The Illusionary Electric Eel threw the Silver-Scaled Wrasse onto the deck and dived into the sea again.

Yun Chujiu forgot about her original goal. After preparing the Silver-Scaled Wrasse, she cut a large piece of fish meat and stewed it. Not long after, the entire boat was filled with a strange fragrance.

She could not stop drooling. The Three Silly Munchkins Eyeballs were about to fall off. They stared at the big pot, waiting for the meat to be cooked so they could feast on it.

Little Black Rat was now close to losing its mind. Originally, it rarely ate anything other than ores. Now that it had been corrupted by Yun Chujiu with delicious food, it no longer ate ores and began to eat all kinds of foods.

Just as the four foodies were about to feast, a fishing boat quickly sailed over. Behind the fishing boat, there was a big boat chasing it, the people on the boat shouted, "Stop! Hand over the treasure you found, or I will destroy your Big Dipper Island."

"He Quan, you old man, if you don't stop, we will attack your Big Dipper Island right now. I heard that your daughter is as beautiful as a flower and jade. We'll ravage her first and then kill her to vent anger!"

"Right! After destroying Big Dipper Island, we'll reclaim the treasure ourselves!"

Yun Chujiu frowned. Hearing that the people on the ship behind them behaved so aggressively, she thought, "Damn it, you dare to disturb me while I'm eating fish. You're courting death."

Little Black Bird and the other two were even more furious. F*ck! Where did these idiots come from? They dared interrupt our meal! We will torture him to death!

The fishing ship had already passed Yun Chujiu's ship. Yun Chujiu rolled her eyes then steered her ship between the larger ship and the fishing ship it pursued.

"Are you f*cking blind?! How dare you block our Cape Star Island's boat? Come out and kowtow to confess your crimes!" Someone on the boat immediately shouted.

Yun Chujiu boarded the deck from the cockpit and smiled coldly. "Kowtow to confess my crimes? You guys are making such a big fuss and disturbing my meal. You guys are the ones who should kowtow."

The people on the big ship saw that it was actually a beautiful girl and were stunned at first, then, they started to laugh lewdly, "Hahaha! I didn't expect there to be an unexpected find. This little girl is really pretty. She is much more handsome than old He's daughter! Little Girl, you delivered yourself to our door. Don't blame us for not being polite!"

"Brothers, Go! Take this little girl back and make her the island owner's wife. We will use this boat when we go back out to sea in the future. First, we will deal with this little girl, then we will chase that old man He Quan. Even if he runs away, the monk won't have anywhere else to go but his temple." A man with a scar on his face said arrogantly.

Yun Chujiu was about to say something, but she did not expect the fishing boat to return. "Miss, quickly drive the boat and run away. We will hold them back."

The one who spoke was an old man. One look and one could tell that he had been working out at sea all year round. A life full of hardships could be seen on his face. There were more than ten strong young men beside him, but their spiritual power levels were not that high. They were all at the first or second layer of the spirit cultivator realm, much lower than the people on the big boat.
