

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 936

After Yun Chujiu distributed all the pills, she hopped back to her dormitory.

“Prince Charming, you’d better tell your master about those cleansing pills. It’s best if there are no restrictions. Give a few to my grandfather and uncle so that they can become stronger.”

Di Beiming nodded and took out a voice transmission talisman to send a message to his master. However, he could not send any messages. It was likely that the old man was in seclusion or traveling again.

“I could not send a message. I will try again another day. Don’t worry, I will definitely follow up on this matter.”

“En, Prince Charming, I don’t need to worry about you. The person I trust the most is you!” Yun Chujiu was like an infatuated girl. As she looked at the newly-made beautiful man in front of her and her eyes were filled with little hearts.

Di Beiming coughed a few times unnaturally, but in his heart, he was quite proud. It did not matter if the cat was black or white, a cat that could catch a mouse was already a good cat. As long as Little Jiu liked him, it was good enough.

Yun Chujiu looked at Di Beiming, whose ears were slightly red, and her heart itched. Her claws subconsciously touched Di Beiming’s face. Damn, it was so slippery!

Just as Yun Chujiu wanted to touch him again, a shout came from the sky, “Little Trash! Stop!”

Yun Chujiu silently rolled her eyes. The old witch was here!

As expected, the Palace Mistress was here.

However, this time, she listened to Di Beiming's suggestion and did not take the luxurious flying spirit tool. Instead, she took a very ordinary-looking flying spirit tool.

The Palace Mistress heard Di Beiming say that Yun Chujiu was already at the eighth level of the spirit emperor realm. She did not believe it at all and felt that Di Beiming was lying to her.

However, she was still uncertain and decided to come to find out for herself.

"Greetings, Palace Mistress. Long time no see. I miss you so much. I can dream of you every day. In my dreams, you cared for me in every way. This little heart of mine is so touched." Yun Chujiu said with a touched expression.

The Palace Mistress snorted coldly, but she was very surprised in her heart, 'How did this Little Trash become more and more beautiful?! He was almost on par with the few ladies that she had high hopes for! HMPH! It must be that Little Brat Beiming who had asked his master for some beautiful medicinal pills.'

The Palace Mistress looked at Yun Chujiu's spiritual power again. HMPH! This Little Brat Beiming was indeed lying to her. This lass only at the first level of the spiritual emperor realm!

When Yun Chujiu went to the Sea of Stars, she had adjusted her spiritual power to the first level of the spiritual emperor realm. She did not even think about changing it when she returned. Therefore, the Palace Mistress only saw Yun Chujiu at the first level of the spiritual emperor realm.

As the Palace Mistress had already experienced Yun Chujiu's sharp tongue, she kept a cold face throughout the whole process. Other than a cold snort, she ignored her. Instead, she was stunned by Di Beiming's appearance!

“Beiming, you... how did your skin become so good? Has your master developed a new beauty pill? Hurry up and give me a few!” The Palace Mistress said anxiously, women were always very concerned about their appearance, and the Palace Mistress was no exception.

“Mother, what beauty pill are you talking about?! I only took the Universal Essence Cleansing Pill that Little Jiu refined for me to turn out like this.” Di Beiming explained.

“HMPH! Who are you trying to kid?! That Little Trash can even refine pills?! You little bastard! Did your master only give you two pills, so you took one and gave that Little Trash the other? As expected, you have forgotten your mother when you had a wife!” The Palace Mistress sighed in anger.

Yun Chujiu blinked her eyes. “Thank you for acknowledging my identity, mother. Although it’s a little early to call me his wife before we get married, I don’t mind.. However, shouldn’t you give me a big red packet instead?”
