

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 97

As they got closer to the spirit flower sect, the value of gold and silver began to depreciate greatly. People began to use spirit pearls and spirit stones to trade.

One Spirit Pearl could be exchanged for ten taels of gold, and one spirit pearl could only buy two meat buns.

Even though everyone's food had been reduced from delicacies to steamed buns and boiled water, the gold and silver in their bags were still decreasing rapidly.

Yun Chujiu and the others had also thought of buying some demon beasts to exchange for money or to eat them. However, this place was almost two days away from the nearest Demon Beast Forest, and traveling back and forth was really too time-consuming.

In the end, it was still Yun Chujiu's idea to sell two of their horses and exchange them for three thousand spirit pearls. Finally, the problem of eating was temporarily solved.

Yun Chujiu estimated the distance. She could still reach the Ling Hua sect by living frugally, but the quality of life was obviously declining!

Needless to say, the food was simple, and the accommodation was often only two rooms. Everyone squeezed in.

On this day, Yun Chujiu and the others finally arrived at the Linghua city at the foot of the Linghua Faction Mountain.

The Linghua city was filled with people. Other than the people who came to participate in the test, there were also many relatives and friends who accompanied the test.

All the inns and restaurants in Linghua City were full, and the prices were shockingly high.

Yun Chujiu and the others found a simple and crude inn with great difficulty. They rented two rooms and temporarily settled down.

Although they were short of money, everyone was still very excited. The things they saw along the way would probably never have been dreamed of in Ye city. Coming out this time had really broadened their horizons!

The next day, Yun Chujiu suggested that everyone go to the place where the Linghua sect registered. First, they wanted to see the registration process, and second, they wanted to find out the truth.

The place where the Linghua sect had registered was at the foot of the Linghua sect's mountain, and it was very close to Linghua city. Yun Chujiu and the others did not ride horses, and they strolled to the place where they had registered.

Along the way, the Yun family members received several disdainful gazes.

"TSK, look at those people. They look like country bumpkins who haven't seen the world."

"That's right. They're actually wearing ordinary clothes, and they don't even have a spirit tool. They're really poor."

"They're not young anymore. Look at their cultivation. How dare they come here? ! Even if they could register, they wouldn't be able to get in."

"Forget it. Forget about taking the entrance exam. Their cultivation doesn't even meet the registration criteria. That black girl doesn't even have any spirit energy. If I were them, they wouldn't even have the face to come here."

“And that black girl. It’s one thing if she’s a piece of trash, but she’s actually carrying a weird bag. Could it be that there’s a steamed bun in it? hahaha!”

“Hahaha, with their poverty, they definitely can’t afford a storage bag. Naturally, they have to carry a bag. My servants are even richer than them.”

Yun Chuwu and the others heard the crowd’s discussion and looked at the others’ attire and cultivation. They couldn’t help but feel inferior, and they couldn’t even walk naturally.

Yun chujiu frowned, and her small face became stern, she glanced at the Yun family members unhappily. “Brothers and sisters, this cultivation itself is against the heaven. It is meant to constantly surpass oneself and overcome all kinds of difficulties. Why, have a few words of gossip affected your minds?”

“We can not decide our own origins, but we can work harder and better than others! “Although the people of our Yun family aren’t rich, we must have faith! “All of you, stand up straight and hold your heads high!”

Yun Chuwu’s words seemed to have hit Yun Chuwu and the others in the head. Everyone looked ashamed. We’re not even as good as little jiu. Little Jiu can stand up straight even without spiritual power, so why can’t we? !

Yun Chuwu and the others immediately changed from their previous timidity to calm and confident. The siblings of the Yun family were already very outstanding in appearance (cough cough, except for little jiu) , but now that their imposing manner was put together, they actually didn’t look any worse than the others.., they even had an extra bit of pride.

Yun chujiu secretly gave herself thirty-two likes. I gave myself ninety-nine points, one more point to be afraid of my own pride!
