

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 999

Yin Sulian heard what the teacher said and her head buzzed. She wished she could find a hole to hide in. She thought of what she had said before and felt like she was the subject of a joke.

"Just now, someone said that we, the trash, have to run into a wall? Sigh! We got first place by accident. I wonder if the rest of us will jump off the cliff or hang ourselves, or buy a piece of tofu to kill ourselves?" Yun Chujiu said faintly.

Yin Sulian gritted her teeth. "Yun Chujiu, don't be so smug! You just got lucky! There aren't many people that chose the ocean environment. Maybe the demonic beasts inside are all low-level, so you took advantage of it!"

Yun Chujiu looked at her. "Low-level? Open your eyes and see if this is a low-level demonic beast?"

With a bang, a Sawtooth Arowana was thrown to the ground. The sound it made when it hit the ground was like an earthquake. Yin Sulian and the others were shocked.

"Excuse me, second Miss Yin, is this Sawtooth Arowana considered low-level?" Yun Chujiu asked coldly.

Yin Sulian braced herself and said, "Humph! It's Just A Level 15 demonic beast. What's so great about it? We've encountered a level 17 demonic beast."

"Secondly Miss Yin, don't you know that a sea beast's power in the sea rises by at least three levels? A Level 15 demonic beast is equivalent to a level 18 demonic beast on land."

"Humph! What's there to boast about killing a level 18 demon beast in six hours?!" Even though Yin Sulian felt a little weak in her heart, her mouth did not give in.

"One is too little? Then what about two?"

Clang! Another Sawtooth Arowana was thrown to the ground!

Those instructors had been very shocked when they saw one Sawtooth Arowana. Now that they saw two, they were even more shocked. How did these four examinees do it? How could they kill two Sawtooth Arowanas at their level?

Yin Sulian stammered, "Humph! Maybe the Sawtooth Arowana was already injured. You guys just took advantage of it."

Yun Chujiu looked at her, "Yin Sulian, I think you will never be successful in your life. You will never be able to acknowledge other people's successes. You always think that you are superior and rely on your family background. The truth is, you are nothing!"

"Yun Chujiu! What right do you have to lecture me? Shut Up!" Yin Sulian was so angry that her face was red and her neck was thick with veins. She wanted to strangle Yun Chujiu to death.

"Your mouth is on me. What right do you have to tell me to shut up? Yin Sulian, you are much worse than your sister. Your Sister is the heaven and you are the mud. You will never be better than her!"

"Shut up! You are talking nonsense! Yun Chujiu, I will kill you!" Yin Sulian had lost her mind from Yun Chujiu's provocation. She threw several wind blades at Yun Chujiu.

"Stop! Yin Sulian, how can you be so impudent here?!" A teacher shouted angrily.

Yin Sulian was shocked. She had acted rashly earlier. Now that she had calmed down, she knew that she had caused trouble. She had actually attacked someone while in the Tianyuan Academy in public, and in front of so many teachers. That was equivalent to looking down on the teachers!

Yin Sulian was anxious. She rolled her eyes and pretended to faint.

Yun Chujiu pursed her lips. How could she use such an old trick? She was too lazy to expose her, so she returned to Feng Ming and the other two to continue her meditation.

After a while, more and more examinees passed the test. Yin Sulian hid in an inconspicuous place with her tail between her legs. The teachers also turned a blind eye. The Yin family was powerful, so they had to occasionally look the other way..
